GOP Regulars Move To Meet Challenge As Floor Leader

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican regulars rallied behind Sen. Everett Dirksen of Illinois in the face of an insurgent challenge to his Senate GOP floor leadership bid.

Senators Carl T. Curtis of Nebraska and Francis Case of South Dakota said in separate interviews they will support Dirksen in his forthcoming contest with Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky.

Moreover, Dirksen announced he had been authorized by Sen. J. Glenn Beall of Maryland to say that Beall would vote for him. The Maryland Republican had been counted by Republican liberals as one of them but he did not show up Tuesday at a meeting at which eight rebels agreed upon a slate.

From other sources it was reported that Sen. Gordon Allott of Colorado, who also had been wooed by the liberal group, has committed himself to back Dirksen.

The insurgents, who contend they form the core of Eisenhower backers in the Senate, chose Sen. Thomas Kuchel of California as their candidate for whip, or assistant leader.

They left open until a meeting next Tuesday the question of whether they will challenge other veterans in the present leadership, including Sen. Styles Bridges of New Hampshire, chairman of the party's policy committee.

Dirksen said he isn't worried by the minority uprising, which the rebels said was aimed primarily at gaining a voice in the direction of Senate Republican affairs and in the formation of policies at Eisenhower's weekly meetings with GOP congressional leaders.

"I feel quite confident of my election," Dirksen said.

He said he had heard no mention of any other candidate than Kuchel for the whip's post, from which Dirksen hopes to advance to the floor leadership vacated by retiring Sen. William F. Knowland of California.

But Curtis said by no means a foregone conclusion that Kuchel won't have opposition from the conservative side.

Cooper and Kuchel were publicly optimistic about their chances of gaining a majority when the 36 GOP senators vote at an organizational conference Jan. 7.

Others attending besides Cooper and Kuchel, others present at Tuesday's meeting included: Senators Prescott Bush of Connecticut, George D. Aiken of Vermont, Clifford P. Case of New Jersey, Jacob K. Javits of New York and Senators-elect Kenneth B. Keating of New York and Hugh D. Scott of Pennsylvania.

They previously had been pledged the support of Sen. Frank Carlson of Kansas and Sen.-elect Winston Prouty of Vermont.

Sen. Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky has said he would support his colleague. The rebels also claimed the backing of Sen. Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin, but Wiley was not available to report.

'Sick' Sailor Gets Asylum

SVENDBORG, Denmark (AP) — A Polish sailor got himself rushed to the hospital so he could stay in the West. His ship sailed without him Tuesday night, but the sailor paid for his freedom with an appendix he didn't need to lose.

The 22-year-old seaman complained to the captain of the Polish ship that his stomach ached. He was allowed ashore to see a doctor.

Crying loudly, he went to the office of a shipping company which called an ambulance. At the hospital, the doctors rushed him to the operating table and removed his appendix without a diagnosis.

Conscious again after the operation, the sailor admitted he had feigned illness to get away from his ship.

U. S. Rocket Gains In Year Offset Flops In Last Tests

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — A busy and fruitful 1958 ended with a double bang at this space age shooting gallery.

A Navy Polaris test rocket and an Air Force Thor were launched Tuesday before the New Year's Day shutdown of the test center and both exploded in the sky in a day of spectacular fireworks.

A year ago, with the Sputniks orbiting ominously overhead and the Soviet Union holding a massive lead in the space race, two failures so close together would have plunged the nation into deepest gloom.

Today, America could laugh them off, for out of such failures have come successes which have put the free world in a neck-and-neck struggle with the Reds.

Police Force 'Unionization' Move Rapped

Teamsters' Proposal Involves New York, 14 Other U. S. Cities

NEW YORK (UPI) — James R. Hoffa's Teamsters Union was revealed today set to try to organize 15 American police forces. First step is a New York drive involving picketing of headquarters, precinct stations and supply depots.

Police Commissioner Stephen P. Kennedy, a cop risen from 30 years in the ranks, angrily pledged to fight with every legal weapon any interference with operation of the 23,600-man force.

Henry Feinstein, teamster representative in New York, said the picketing, set to start Jan. 12, was in no way a strike move and that no attempt would be made to interfere with police supplies by asking truckers or other union members not to cross picket lines.

Should Not Strike

"We do not believe policemen should go out on strike," he said. "We do not believe police should have the right to strike. This will simply be a demonstration to bring home to the public the policemen's plight."

Feinstein disclosed organization drives were underway in 15 cities, including Denver and the Florida area from Palm Beach down to Key West. He said New York could be a "model" for unionized police forces.

Kennedy scoffed at Feinstein's assurance police would never be called on to strike.

Hoffa Would Head Police

"Does anyone seriously believe an outfit like this, after starting with picketing, would hesitate to strike to get what they want?" he said. "If the police are unionized I would advise people not to waste their money paying a commissioner his salary because Hoffa, not the commissioner, would be in fact head of the Police Department."

Kennedy recalled the 1919 strike of Boston police when the city was terrorized for five days as hoodlums roamed the streets and citizens hid in their homes. Eight persons were killed before National Guard troops called in by then Gov. Calvin Coolidge restored order.

Ship Breaks Apart; Crew Of 45 Saved

OCEAN CITY, Md. (AP)—Both sections of the Liberian tanker, which broke in two off the Atlantic Coast, wallowed today on the shoal where she apparently went aground.

Forty-five crewmen of the 500-foot African Queen were whisked to a safety by helicopter over surging seas yesterday 10 miles east-southeast of this resort city.

Some of the oil the 13,800-ton ship was bringing from Venezuela to Paulsboro, N. J., was highly explosive but the only casualty was a bump on the head of one crewman.

Minutes after the tanker had flashed a distress signal, a Navy plane found her. Nine helicopters converged on the broken vessel from five states.

The first crewman was ashore less than three hours after the distress call. The fast-paced rescue operation were directed by the Coast Guard.

The dramatic rescue was staged as moderately rough seas with heavy swells pounded the sections of the broken ship.

The Coast Guard said the ship beneath the African Queen is shown on charts but is not marked by a buoy or other navigation aid.

The ship's cargo—21,000 tons of crude oil—was valued at an estimated $600,000. She has been declared officially abandoned and open to salvaging but arrangements were not definite.

390 Deaths Seen On Roads During Holiday Weekend

CHICAGO (AP) — The National Safety Council estimates 390 Americans may die in traffic accidents, during the four-day New Year holiday and 11,000 other persons may suffer disabling accidents.

The council figured 350 traffic deaths would occur during a non-holiday period of equal length.

The 102-hour New Year holiday period runs from 6 p.m. local time Wednesday to midnight Sunday, Jan. 4.

The record traffic toll for a New Year holiday is 409, set in a four-day period at the end of 1956 and beginning of 1957.

During the recent Christmas four-day period 594 highway deaths were counted by The Associated Press. The council made a pre-Christmas estimate of 620.

New Year's Celebrated Many Ways

World Forgets Old Woes Temporarily In Hopes For Future

By The Associated Press

In New Orleans or New Delhi, Berlin or Buffalo, Santiago or Shanghai, tonight is the night to forget old troubles and look with hope to a new year.

Midnight will be greeted in many ways by many people as it moves around the globe ushering in another year. Undaunted by last year's broken resolutions, few will overlook an opportunity to turn away awhile from today's black headlines and hope 1959 will bring brighter ones.

There'll be fireworks atop Pike's Peak, a bonfire in Bangor, Maine, musket fire in Cherryville, N.C., and somewhere in the land there may be a chorus or two of "Auld Lang Syne" and perhaps even "Show Me the Way to Go Home."

Big Japanese Event

In Tokyo, the Japanese are planning the biggest New Year's celebration since the end of World War II. They will pay off their old debts, get their hair fixed, take a hot bath and don't bright new kimonos to greet their favorite holiday. It's the end of "The Year of the Rooster" and the beginning of "The Year of the Wild Boar."

Other Eastern nations — including Communist China — are planning traditional festivities.

The Red Chinese have reported big shipments of meats, cabbages, sugar, fish, chickens and fruits into Peking, Tientsin, Shanghai and other cities for New Year's Day and the Chinese spring festival which follows soon after.

Traditionally in Europe. In Europe, there'll be the traditional celebrations, not basically different from American festivities, with similar repercussions the day after. In Moscow, it's the biggest holiday of the year with gift-giving and decorations.

President Eisenhower is planning to "spend New Year's Eve quietly at home" in Gettysburg, Pa., with friends and relatives. He plans to stay at his farm until the end of the week.

There will be football bowl games in Pasadena, New Orleans, Miami and Dallas Thursday, along with marching bands, flower-decked floats and pretty girls.

The Adman club in Colorado Springs, which adds one new member each year, will make its annual trek atop Pike's Peak at midnight to shoot fireworks.

In Maine, the city of Bangor has collected discarded Christmas trees for a giant bonfire to be set aglow, touching off the city's 125th anniversary celebration.

Rebels Free Kentuckians

MIAMI (UPI) — A young American school teacher said today that a simple question on the Cuban civil war caused a group of Cuban secret policemen "who looked like hoodlums" to seize him and a friend at gunpoint from an American airliner in Havana Airport.

Larry F. Brantley vigorously denied accusations by Cuban authorities that he shouted pro-rebel slogans at the airport Monday night.

Brantley and James W. Reid, a fellow teacher at Waggoner High School in Louisville, Ky., were released Tuesday night after spending a day in police custody in the Cuban capital.

Air Force Scientist Finds: Simple Forms Of Earth Life Can Live On Mars

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some simple forms of earth life can live and grow on Mars, an Air Force scientist reported today.

Now the question is: Can some useful forms of life be grown in Martian-like soil, perhaps to provide food for visiting earthmen.

That, at any rate, is one direction for future research, said Lt. Col. John D. Fulton of the School of Aviation Medicine, Randolph Air Force Base, Tex.

Some forms of soil bacteria have been shown to live under conditions similar to those on Mars, Fulton told a meeting at the American Assn. for the Advancement of Science.

These soil bacteria are the kind that help convert basic soils chemicals into plant food.

Snow Storm Toll In West Climbs To 13

Freezing Rain Also Hits In Some Areas Including Ohio Valley

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — A large part of the Midwest and Southwest will greet the new year under a cover of snow, four to ten inches deep.

After covering New Mexico earlier this week, a moisture-laden storm moved east and north Tuesday. It cut deep into Texas, then dropped four to eight inches of snow on parts of Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri.

To Continue Move

Its slow movement was expected to continue across southeast Kansas into northeast Missouri. Along the south and eastern edges of the snow—roughly from St. Louis southwest to north central Arkansas and northeast Texas—there was sleet and freezing rain.

Thirteen deaths, most from traffic accidents, have been attributed to the storm.

Roads were hazardous throughout the storm area.

Wet Weather Extended

The wet weather in the mid-continent was expected to extend over wide areas during the day, from eastern sections of Texas and Oklahoma northeastward through Tennessee and Kentucky and across the Ohio Valley into the southern Great Lakes.

A band of freezing rain will divide the occasional rain, to the south from the snow in the north, extending from northern Texas northeastward through central Arkansas, Kentucky and southern sections of the Ohio Valley. Heavy snow was forecast to the north from eastern Oklahoma through parts of Missouri, Kansas and Iowa, with light falls in the southern Great Lakes region and northern parts of the Ohio Valley.

Ex-Senator Dies

BUCKHANNON, W. Va. (UPI) — Former West Virginia State Sen. G. O. Young died at his home here Tuesday night at the age of 65 from complications resulting from a heart attack suffered while on a fall hunting trip in Canada.

Firemen Unable To Answer Call

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (UPI) — The Woodland restaurant, about one mile south of here on U.S. 52, was destroyed by fire today. Owner R. C. Humphreys estimated the loss at $100,000.

The Huntington Fire Department was unable to go to the scene because of a recently enforced ordinance that forbids outside-of-the-city-calls unless an individual or business has a contract with the department.

He scheduled an appointment at his Gettysburg farm with chief aide Wilton B. Parsons and speechwriter Malcolm Moos to work on a draft of the State of the Union message he plans to deliver to Congress personally Jan. 9.

Otherwise, his New Year's Eve involved not much more than a family get-together.

The White House announced that the chief executive would return to the White House briefly Saturday for a ceremonial signing of a proclamation making Alaska the 49th state. He also will unveil a new 49-star flag.

Prisoner Found Dead In Buckhannon Jail

BUCKHANNON, W. Va. (UPI) — Philip Stanton of Ellamore, Randolph County, was found dead in his cell at the Upshur County Jail here Tuesday. Authorities said Stanton had asked to be jailed because of intoxication Monday night. They said indications were Stanton died from drinking a poisonous substance containing alcohol.

Mercy Death Case Dropped

CHICAGO (UPI) — The chief justice of Chicago's Criminal Court Tuesday instructed an elderly man to withdraw a guilty plea in the mercy killing of his arthritic wife. The judge acquitted him.

The defendant, Otto Werner, 68, was near tears when Judge Abraham Maritz found him "not guilty on the evidence" of manslaughter charges in the suffocation death of Werner's wife, Anna.

Report Form Helps Speed Census Work

WASHINGTON (AP) — An advance report form will be mailed to every household in the nation in advance of the 1960 census.

It isn't to be filled in and returned, officials explained today. The possibility of such a do-it-yourself census had been considered, but plans for it were abandoned after a test in Memphis, Tenn., last year showed imperfections.

The advance report forms will, however, give residents a chance to have the answers ready for the census takers who will visit them as they have each 10 years in the past. Its use is expected to increase both the speed and the accuracy of the nose count, officials said.

The nation's population is expected to total 180 million persons by 1960.

The census enumerators, as part of counting them, will take information on each person's relation to the head of the household, his age, sex, color or race, marital status and date of birth.

Eisenhower Has Quiet Day; Maps Union Message

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — President Eisenhower winds up the old year today by pulling some finishing touches on his proposals for Congress in the year to come.

He scheduled an appointment at his Gettysburg farm with chief aide Wilton B. Parsons and speechwriter Malcolm Moos to work on a draft of the State of the Union message he plans to deliver to Congress personally Jan. 9.

Otherwise, his New Year's Eve involved not much more than a family get-together.

Fierce Fight Routs Cuban Rebel Force

Government Claims Santa Clara Victory; Casualties Heavy

By LARRY ALLEN

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — Army forces today smashed a rebel attempt to capture Santa Clara in central Cuba and are driving the insurgents eastward, the government said.

Rebel broadcasts conceded that the fighting now had moved north and east of that city controlling highways from Havana to eastern Cuba.

Attack Everywhere

Fighters, bombers, artillery, tanks, armored cars and infantry were reported attacking rebels everywhere in Las Villas province, of which Santa Clara is the capital.

A rebel broadcast said forces in the town of Cruces just west of Santa Clara "are no longer able to resist in the face of attacks by tanks."

Government sources put rebel casualties in the furious street-by-street fighting in Santa Clara at 3,000 killed or wounded.

Government losses were not indicated.

Rebels In Bad Way

The rebels appeared to be in a bad way. One rebel commander was heard radioing urgently for reinforcements. The government is known to outnumber the rebels in Las Villas.

Rebel broadcasts, which had been saying the overthrow of Batista was imminent, stopped talking about the fighting in Las Villas.

The rebels claimed new successes in Oriente. They said they captured the city of Guanajama, 27 miles north of the U.S. naval base of the same name.

The record now stands at 1-1. Only hours before the baby's death at 2 p.m. e.s.t. in Swedish Covenant Hospital, the only other recorded 12-ounce baby to survive—now a pretty 22-year-old school teacher—comforted Gloria's mother.

Jacqueline Benson, who also was born prematurely in Chicago, was unable to see the infant after traveling from Palatine, Ill., but assured Mrs. Mabel Hanses, 22, that the doctors were not outclassed in the struggle.

Gloria was born nearly four months early, after Mrs. Hanses suffered a fall Christmas Eve down two flights of stairs.

Social Security Tax Boost Goes Into Effect Tomorrow

WASHINGTON (AP) — American levy will jump from $94.50 to $120, due to the combination of increased rate and higher taxable salary base.

Employers will pay the same increase as the workers, making the total Social Security tax run 5 per cent instead of 4 1/2 per cent. The rate for self-employed persons goes up from 3 1/2 to 3 3/4 per cent, also on a $4,800 taxable base. An estimated 1 1/2 million will pay the maximum 27 per cent increase. On the benefit side, a retired worker now getting the maximum of $108.50 a month will receive $116 a month, effective with his first 1959 check delivered during the first week in February. At the bottom of the scale the retired worker getting $30 will get $33.

West Shuns Berlin Free City Status

U. S. Joins Britain, France In Appeal; Troops To Remain

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Western Big Three called on the Soviet Union today to discuss the on-line German problem, including Berlin's future, at a new four-power conference. They rejected firmly any such talks under menace or ultimatum.

In similar notes, the United States, Britain and France:

1. Flatly rejected Premier Nikita Khrushchev's proposal to turn West Berlin into a so-called free city.

2. Denounced as a violation of international agreements Khrushchev's announced plan to turn over Soviet controls in East Berlin to the East Germans.

Forces To Remain

3. Served notice the three Allies intend to keep their forces in West Berlin to protect the freedom and security of the more than two million West Berliners.

In offering to talk over the German deadlock, the United States said in a 2,000-word note that it is "ready at any time to enter into discussions with the Soviet government."

The note emphasized that the proposed talks would not be on the Berlin problem alone, but should embrace "the wider framework of negotiations for a solution of the German problem as well as that of European security."

The note mentioned the need to talk over Western proposals for free all-German elections or "any other proposals" genuinely designed to secure the unification of Germany "in freedom."

No Date, Place Cited

No date or place was suggested for the talks. Nor was there any hint of the level at which the discussions would be held.

Some Western diplomatic officials are known to be thinking in terms of a Big Four foreign ministers conference some time in the spring.

Responsible authorities meanwhile expressed belief that Deputy Soviet Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan's forthcoming visit to Washington is part of a Soviet maneuver to lead to the Berlin crisis.

Many diplomats saw Mikoyan's trip, starting during the first week of January, as a Kremlin move to take some of the teeth out of the tensions created by Khrushchev's plan.

Mikoyan, expected to arrive Saturday or Sunday, may disclose some Soviet formula, it was felt, which would avoid any head-on clash between the East and West over Berlin's future.

Small Infant Loses Battle

CHICAGO (UPI) — The death Tuesday of premature, 12-ounce infant Gloria Hanses marked a loss by medical science to nature's birth regiment.

The record now stands at 1-1. Only hours before the baby's death at 2 p.m. e.s.t. in Swedish Covenant Hospital, the only other recorded 12-ounce baby to survive—now a pretty 22-year-old school teacher—comforted Gloria's mother.

Jacqueline Benson, who also was born prematurely in Chicago, was unable to see the infant after traveling from Palatine, Ill., but assured Mrs. Mabel Hanses, 22, that the doctors were not outclassed in the struggle.

Gloria was born nearly four months early, after Mrs. Hanses suffered a fall Christmas Eve down two flights of stairs.

West Virginia Gross Sales Tax Declines

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—State Tax Commissioner John A. Field said today there had been a 12 per cent decline in gross sales tax collections in the first five months of the current fiscal year.

Field said collections July 1-Nov. 30 totaled $21,728,246. This compared with $24,823,376 for a similar period last year, or a decline of $3,095,129.

Collections from the coal industry dropped 55 per cent and there was a 28 per cent decline in all forms of production.

The largest percentage increases for the period were for truckers and other carriers at 339 per cent, Field said. Pipe line companies also paid 114 per cent more than last year.

Truckers increased from $106,866 a year ago to $490,454 this year and pipe line companies were up from $5,300 to $11,335. Earlier this month, the State Board of Public Works ordered a 5 per cent curtailment in state spending because of a combined drop of $3,500,000 in the gross sales tax and consumer sales taxes during the five-month period.

The Tax Department report showed that tax collections from the coal industry during the comparable periods was down this year to $3,694,507, compared to $5,643,761 a year ago. It also showed an overall reduction of taxes collected in all forms of production at $4,874,443, compared to $6,802,646.

Manufacturing and retail business showed only 5 and 6 per cent declines, respectively, while wholesale collections were down 18 per cent.

Hagerstown Employment At New Low

HAGERSTOWN (AP)—The employment situation may be improving for most of Maryland but in Hagerstown it's the worst it has ever been.

More than 3,100 persons drew unemployment benefits from the Washington County office of the Department of Employment Security, and Manager Matthew J. White said that figure is expected to climb to 3,500 next week.

In addition, about 450 jobless workers have exhausted the 13 weeks of extra eligibility granted by the State Legislature earlier this year.

The number of persons drawing jobless benefits,

"This is a bad situation—the worst I've seen in 13 years," White said. He blamed it chiefly on seasonal layoffs, firms closing down for year-end inventories and other factors.

He said his office has no job orders at all from factories. Only a few orders are on hand for clerical workers and sewing machine operators. White said the textile and needle trade industry is the only one holding its own.

Gala Affairs

crowded tonight, with most of them charging cover fees to take care of music combos. The fire halls in the outlying district will also be the scene of dances.

The beginning of the new year will also be ushered in at many informal parties in private homes and the 'welkin will ring' in each neighborhood as midnight is reached. The whistles of the area's industrial plants will be sounded, car horns will blare and there are sure to be several shots fired by some enthusiastic welcomer of 1959.

The religious significance of the holiday will be observed by most churches in the form of Watch Night services or Holy Hours. New Year's Day is a holy day of obligation for members of the Catholic faith and they are required to attend mass. The churches in most part will follow the Sunday schedule of masses.

went out of control.

Thus far this month two deaths have occurred on Allegany County roads. Joseph F. Scholt, 44, 203 Vice Street, West Newton, Pa., was killed instantly on U. S. Route 40 at Red Hill and Donna Lee Sloan, 16, Lonaconing, died in a pre-Christmas crash on Route 36, just a short distance from her home.

Lt. W. E. O'Hara, commander of the LaVale barracks, said today that all available troopers will be on duty over the coming New Year's holiday in an effort to curb accidents.

Lt. O'Hara urges motorists to use the utmost caution during the holiday and to keep driving to a minimum.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation gets a new state and a new flag Saturday.

President Eisenhower will sign the proclamation making Alaska the 49th state at a formal ceremony in the White House Saturday noon. He will fly to Washington for the purpose and return later to his Gettysburg, Pa., farm for the remainder of the weekend.

The new state enters the Union immediately. The new flag will become official next July 4, but flag makers in New York said Monday they would have a few of the 49-star flags available as early as next week.

The flag design will not be announced until Saturday. There was speculation it would consist of the present 13 stripes, with 7 rows of 7 stars each in the blue field.

Flagmakers are eager to begin production of the new version. They expect to have flags ready within a day or two, but not many. A backlog of orders has piled up.

The new design for the stars will not affect the proportions of the old flag. Manufacturers can tear out the blue field on present inventory stocks, burn it, and substitute the new blue background.

Pennsylvania Youths Jailed As Fugitives

FAYETTEVILLE, W. Va. (UPI)—Police from Freeport, Pa., were expected here today to take custody of three teenage boys from Kittanning, Pa., being held as fugitives from justice.

The youths, all 17 years old, were arrested late Monday near Prince, Fayette County, several hours after their stolen car had rammed a Chesapeake & Ohio train at the Lawton crossing on U. S. 19.

State Police said the trio admitted stealing the car on the outskirts of Freeport and breaking and entering two establishments in their home state and taking merchandise valued at about $20.

When their car struck the train, they deserted the 1957 vehicle and disappeared into the nearby woodland. They had traveled some eight miles when they were arrested.

Bandits Rob Grocer, Tie Him To Tree

SNOW HILL, Md. (AP) — A Worcester County grocer was robbed and beaten last night by three men who left him unconscious in a lonely wooded area. State Police later stopped a car with three men and asked the grocer to try and identify them. Three Negro men entered the store operated by Preston Hudson, on Maryland 12 outside Girdletree, about six miles south of here. They demanded money and Hud- son handed over about $100. He later told police the men showed a sawed-off shotgun and forced him to enter their car outside the store.

Hudson said a fourth Negro man was waiting by the car, filling the gas tank from Hudson's tank. The men threw him into the back seat and drove him to a wooded area near Pocomoke City, about 13 miles away. There they tied him to a tree, hit him on the head and left him unconscious.

Hudson said he recovered, worked himself loose and walked to a nearby home. He said he was taken back to his store where he notified State Police.

A 13-state alarm was sent out and roadblocks were set up. Be- fore midnight State Police stopped three suspects and asked Hudson to come to Fruiland for identi- fication purposes.

Hudson's condition from the blow on the head was not be- lieved serious.

Highway Fatality Toll Mounts At Year's End

By The Associated Press

With New Year's Eve still ahead of them, Marylanders count- ed four more persons dead in traf- fic accidents.

This boosts to 497 the number of traffic deaths on state roads this year, compared with 552 at this time last year.

The victims included Susie Ag- nes Bush, 30, of Greel, Md., who was dead on arrival at Harford Memorial Hospital, Havre de Grace, at 4:15 p. m. yesterday.

She was fatally injured in a two- car collision at the intersection of Maryland 624 and 136 a few miles west of Whiteford, Harford County.

Her husband, 32-year-old Charles Bush, was admitted to the hospital with lacerations of the face and body and possible internal injuries.

The driver of the other car, 33-year-old William Gapetz of Aber- deen, Md., and his wife, Elizabeth, 32, both were admitted with multi- ple injuries.

State Police said charges were pending.

Other victims: Edward F. Waters, 70-year-old Negro storekeeper of Fairmont, Md., killed in a collision on U. S. 13 South of Salisbury yesterday.

Six others were injured in the crash.

Harry Gaylord Anthony, 74, struck by a car and killed yes- terday at Sudlersville, Md. He was pronounced dead at the scene by Dr. C. H. Metcalfe.

Martha Macey, 58-year-old Ne- gro woman of Baltimore, died yes- terday at South Baltimore Gen- eral Hospital after she was struck by a truck several hours earlier.

The Inca empire of South America had a population of about five million.

The Incas preserved food by freezing and drying. They also rotated crops.

$7,000 Collected In County Taxes

Related Allegany County tax- payers desirous of keeping their additional charges as low as pos- sible, paid some $7,000 in taxes yesterday at the office of Tax Collector J. Wallace Close at the Court House.

Interest on county 1958 real estate taxes will advance to two- and-one-half per cent after Janu- ary 2 and to two per cent for state real estate taxes, a one-half per cent increase in each case. The taxpayers also will save a 50-cent charge which will be added after January 2 for tax delinquency notices.

Labor Legislation Meetings Planned

The executive board of the Maryland-D. C. Labor Council, AFL-CIO, will meet January 23 in Annapolis, according to local labor officials.

State-wide legislation is expect- ed to be discussed at the meet- ing.

Plans have been made for a meeting between the Western Maryland Central Labor Council and the Allegany County delega- tion. Friday at 7:30 p. m. The session will probably be held in the Union Street County Building, according to Del. Fred B. Dis- coll, chairman of the delegation.

Want Name Change

STOCKBRIDGE, England (UPI) — Residents of this Yorkshire town's most fashionable street Tuesday asked city councilors to change the street's name—to any- thing to get away from its present name, "Coal Pit Lane."

College Heads Ask Removal Wage Bars

BALTIMORE (AP) — Three Maryland college presidents say they will investigate the legal pos- sibility of removing salary ceilings for registrars and librarians at State-supported schools.

The move was agreed to yes- terday at a meeting of the State Employees Standard Salary Board and is the first step in a plan to attract more and better applicants for the positions—particularly at the teachers colleges.

Board Chairman Russell S. Dav- is said even if the attorney gen- eral's office decided it was per- missible to remove the civil serv- ice salary ceilings, the Legisla- ture also would have to concur.

The present ceilings are $6,034 for registrars and $5,732 for li- brarians.

College presidents backing the move are Dr. Wilson H. Elkins of Maryland, Dr. Earle T. Hawke- ins of Towson State Teachers College and Dr. Martin Jenkins of Morgan State.

"Great Place!—I've Been Here Since Nov. 4"

Doris Fleson

Red Economist Of Interest To Capital

WASHINGTON—Washington is interested, expectant, but not very optimistic over the impending visit of Soviet Deputy Prime Minister Anastas Mikoyan, who more than any man controls the Soviet economy.

The fact that the visit is being made during the new crisis over Berlin has given rise to speculation that he may be coming equipped with a deal to exchange the status quo there for a trade agreement plus large credits. But no one knows, including, so it says, the Soviet Embassy.

POLITICS aside, no one here doubts Mikoyan's skill as the Soviet's leading man of business, his skill at being always on the winning side in the Kremlin, nor his influence there. He will not be given the red carpet treatment; nevertheless he will be received with respect.

His application for a visa was transparent. He said only that he wished to visit the Soviet Ambassador in Washington, Mikhail Menshikov. If an interview with Menshikov had been urgently desired, he, an official of lesser rank, would have been summoned to Moscow.

MIKOYAN is not a stranger to the United States. When he was Food Commissioner in 1936 he headed a delegation to this country. Most of his time was spent inspecting canning plants with his engineering assistants. If he wants a broader look at the United States this time, he will be welcome to it.

When Menshikov was accredited to Washington it was with the announced intention of concluding a trade agreement. Since then the Kremlin has issued a substantial list of materials, including some ores of which we have little domestic supply, along with the suggestion that we finance trade with large and long term credits.

COLD WATER was immediately doused on the credit proposal on the ground that we would be financing Soviet economic offensives against us elsewhere. Since then there have been no public moves, at least toward a trade agreement. The fact that it is Mikoyan, rather than a diplomat, who is being sent to Washington now, is very nearly a guarantee that another move to increase trade is in the offing.

Soviet-American trade, except in the lead-lease years, has never been very large. In the peak years of United States exports to the Soviet Union, in the early Thirties, we shipped them more than $100 million a year, mostly in machine tools and factory equipment.

In an average pre-war year the Soviet shipped us some $65 million in goods, mostly furs. The problem of trading with the Soviet Union, say the trade experts, is that it does not produce much of what we want.

IT IS A FACT, however, that despite recurrent crises over Lebanon, Quenoy, and now Berlin, trade restrictions over much of the world have been coming down. And this includes trade between the East and West as well as among Western nations.

The greatly relaxed rules applying to the convertibility of the pound, the French franc, and the currencies of seven other European nations is a case in point. Mikoyan will probably find the atmosphere better in Washington in this respect than he would have found a few months ago.

"Boiler Room" Steam From False Promises

WASHINGTON (NEA) — How so-called "boiler rooms" operate in high pressure selling of questionable stocks is best illustrated by several recent Securities and Exchange Commission actions to prevent fraud and misrepresentation.

In its most recent case, Jean R. Veditz, president, and Ben Goldstein, director of sales for the Jean R. Veditz Co., Inc., of New York, have consented to temporary suspension of their broker-dealer registration. A hearing on permanent revocation of their license will be held later.

This action is the result of SEC investigation of charges that the Veditz company perpetrated frauds in the sale of stock for Universal Drilling Co. of Louisiana and the Mono-Kearsarge Consolidated Mining Co. of Utah.

Among claims made in selling Universal Drilling Co. stock were that it would soon be listed on New York state boards, that its oil well drilling barge was making money when it was not, that the first year's earnings would be greater than the price of the shares and that this price would double or triple within 30 to 60 days.

AS IF THIS wasn't rosy enough, the promoters claimed that investors had nothing to worry about in buying these shares, for they would always be able to get their money back. They couldn't and didn't.

Finally SEC obtained a temporary restraining order from U. S. District Court in New York. It enjoined the Veditz company and also J. H. Lederer Co., Inc., of New York, from selling Universal Drilling stock. The complaint was filed against the three companies and 46 individuals. This indicates the extent of one of these operations.

On the Mono-Kearsarge offering, Veditz and R. B. Gravis, Inc., of New York acted as conduits for the sale of 982,000 shares of unregistered stock. Some 380,000 had been sold when SEC moved in with its investigation. Then New York State Supreme Court issued a permanent injunction against fraudulent practices in purchase and sale of stocks.

AIRCRAFT shares have been a lucrative field for promoters, as shown by SEC action to end fraud in forced sales of Taylorcraft stock. Two New York dealers were involved—Globe Securities, Donald L. Duncan, president, and Webster Securities, Herbert Rapp, president.

The misrepresentation here was that Taylorcraft had government contracts and that New York bankers had financed its operations for 10 years. Globe sold 200,000 shares and Webster 150,000 at $1 a share, claiming it would go to $3 or $4 and to $15 within a year, which it didn't.

Two other dealers, Albert and Co., Eli Albert, president, and I. B. Morton & Co., Morton I. Binstock, president, were objects of restraining orders against the sale of stock in the Vari Pac company of New Jersey.

This stock had a par value of 10 cents. To push the sale, the claim was made that the stock had earned half a cent profit on 1,400,000 shares in 1958. It was promised that the stock would go to $5 in 90 days.

ON THIS pitch Albert sold 173,000 shares for $113,000 to 500 people in 34 states. The company's phone bill in this typical boiler room operation was $16,000. Morton & Co. sold 104,000 shares for $221,000 to 300 people in 22 states. Its phone bill was $12,000.

The P. J. Gruber & Co., Inc., broker-dealer registration denial case handled by SEC early in 1958 offers a good example of how some boiler rooms do business. This Washington, D. C., firm had eight phones in its "training room."

It sold only by phone, offering securities like Century Controls Corp. and Perfect Line Mfg. Co. After talking to prospects, Gruber would mail sale confirmations—even though no order had been placed. These "sales" were entered on the company books, according to SEC charges.

Ostensible purchasers who refused to accept confirmations had these entries marked "canceled." On one issue, 52 per cent canceled. But the other 48 per cent sent in their check. SEC denied this firm a broker registration, but Gruber has appealed this decision to circuit court.

Glancing Sideways

NEW YORK—This would seem to be the perfect day (leading into a traditional night) to touch all the bases in the matter of taking aboard an excess of alcohol under the guise of having a whale of a time.

A few weeks ago had a little fun with some out of context quote by R. Brunkley Smithers, president of the National Council on Alcoholism, in which he emphasized the peril of lone drinkers.

I said there was no problem with the quiet fellow at the end of the bar, who wasn't bothering anyone, but a large problem with the noisy, extroverted fellow trying to draw attention to himself.

NOW COMES an amiable letter from Yvella Gardner, regional executive director of NCA, who points out in the best possible humor that although the first article was amusing, the fact still remains that the lonely, withdrawn chap is the one really in danger of becoming a bottle addict.

This being a night on which few are lonely and many are drunk, it seems to me only good service to pass on some of Mr. Gardner's observations.

"WHILE THERE is no doubt that the energetic and lively drinker is painful to hostesses and bartenders, it is also a fact that most of these people have their fun and get a good hang-over and then don't bother much with alcohol until another party or acceptable occasion develops.

The lonely fellow at the end of the bar, however, who is less obtrusive and less likely to be thrown out on the street, is drinking from an entirely different motive than our noisy and more obviously drunken friend. The quiet, lonely drinker is more inclined to be drinking to blot out depression, worry, anxiety and other personality and emotional situations.

Newsprint Producers Pause Expansion Programs As Supply Far Exceeds Demand In United States

By WALTER BUSSEWITZ, AP Business News Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—U.S. newsprint publishers had no problem getting enough newsprint in 1958, even in the nation's economy. But dollar expansion, which boosted demand for newsprint, has been held in check by a sudden strong surge in demand for newsprint in the U.S. and Canadian mills. The U.S. and Canadian mills were able to serve their customers without drawing on around 13 about 4 per cent under 1957.

Consumption should rise in 1959, North American newsprint manufacturers carried out a 350-million last general boost of $4 a ton. But dollar expansion, which boosted demand for newsprint, has been held in check by a sudden strong surge in demand for newsprint in the U.S. and Canadian mills. The U.S. and Canadian mills were able to serve their customers without drawing on around 13 about 4 per cent under 1957.

During the past two years, newsprint is selling on a contract basis in New York at a price of $134 a ton. The price that never seems to stop. It is not true to say I'm contemplating it, but a rise in prices is needed.

As the year neared its end, Sir Eric Bowater, head of Bowater Paper Corp., was asked about the future of newsprint prices. He said: "Somebody has got to absorb the ever increasing costs of production and distribution, a tendency that never seems to stop. It is not true to say I'm contemplating it, but a rise in prices is needed."

A naturalized American auto-citizen when he lives outside the U.S. longer than five years, he claims to be the world's leading producer of mail, chutes.

Auto Makers 1958 Sales Drop Sharply

American Motors Lone Company To Prosper By Sales Increase

By DAVID J. WILKIE
A.P. Automotive Writer

DETROIT (AP) — For all but one of the nation's auto makers 1958 was the worst year in recent automotive industry history. It was a year that saw a decline of more than 14 million cars assemblers and a retail sales drop of nearly 14 million units from the preceding year's volume. The year brought losses or profit cuts for all makers except American Motors.

American Motors, riding high on a bulging demand for smaller, lower priced cars, built and sold nearly twice as many vehicles in 1958 as it did the preceding year.

When the 1958 production and sales are finally tabulated they probably will come to nearly 4 1/2 million domestic car assemblies and about 4,780,000 retail deliveries. The latter figure would include about 300,000 imported car sales.

For the year ahead sales are expected to number 5 1/2 million U. S. cars plus up to 400,000 imported cars.

Outstanding events of 1958 included:

Expiration of union labor contracts and months-long negotiations leading to new agreements.

Top-heavy inventories that brought sharp production cutbacks and were further leveled off by work stoppages that followed the new labor agreements.

Sharp criticism of car styling that brought some hurried last minute changes for 1959.

Continuing rise in the demand for smaller, lower priced cars.

Ahead for 1959 undoubtedly is a better year for the car makers. Predictions of a sales volume in excess of 6 1/2 million cars come from nonautomotive economists who sprinkle a liberal number of "ifs" in their appraisals. Major stipulation, of course, is the availability of expendable income. Another is the appeal of substantially altered styling.

The cars that were criticized as too gaudy in 1958 are making less lavish use of bright trim generally. But already there has been some criticism of cars too long and too wide among 1959 models.

More smaller, lower priced American-built cars undoubtedly are coming.

Food Industry Expands, Aids 1958 Economy

Increased Output Despite Recession; Big Year Forecast

By RIP WATSON
AP Business News Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—America's steadily expanding food industry took the 1958 recession in stride.

The industry did so well, in fact, that it helped the over-all economy through increased output of food products, more purchases of farm goods and higher weekly earnings of food processing employees, says Paul S. Willis, president of Grocery Manufacturers of America, Inc.

What's more, he added, the industry plans an increase of 7 percent in 1959 on expenditures for plant and equipment normally running about 600 million dollars a year.

Retail food store sales in the first 10 months rose about 7 percent, compared with a decline of about 1 percent for all retail stores, Willis said. Over-all food consumption — including restaurants and institutions — rose to about 75 billion dollars from 71 billion last year, he estimated.

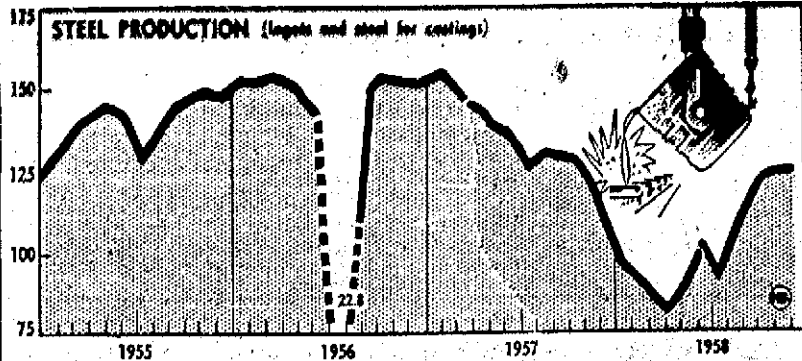

The GMA head predicted expenditures will reach 79 billion dollars in 1959 and may hit the 100-billion-dollar mark by 1965.

He added, however, that profit per dollar of sales from a representative sampling of 80 food companies shrank to 2.7 cents from 2.8 cents in 1957. The figures compared with 4.1 cents in 1946 and 4.6 cents in 1939.

Government cost of living figures showed that food costs rose from 118.2 of the 1947-48 index in January to 119.7 in October, although part of the increase generally was attributed to ruinous growing weather in Florida and California fruit and vegetable areas.

Dun & Bradstreet's food index, which represents the total cost at wholesale of one pound each of 31 foods in general use, exceeded the comparable year-ago figure by 1.1 to 9.7 per cent every week until early December. If lower wholesale prices continue and are passed along at the retail level, this may indicate cheaper food in 1959.

This view is supported by an Agricultural Department report predicting most foods will be much more abundant and a bit cheaper next year.

BAROMETER—Pattern of the 1957-1958 recession, with steel production as the barometer, is traced in chart, left. (Big dip in 1956 was caused by nationwide strike.) Production tumbled throughout 1957, bottoming about March of 1958. Since then, except for brief downturn at mid-year, steel production has begun the long climb back, spurred by auto orders.

Crab Production Took Dip In '58

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — Maryland crabbers never recovered from a slow start, and crab production in the state took a big dip in the 1958 season.

John P. Tawes, chairman of the Tidewater Fisheries Commission, announced yesterday that Maryland packers processed 37,390,981 pounds of hard crabs in the 1958 season and 1,088,402 dozen soft crabs.

The hard crab total is nearly four million pounds less than the 41,079,237 pounds processed in 1957. And soft crab production dipped some 360,000 dozen from last year's total—1,448,299 dozen.

The figures announced by Tawes were for the season which started April 1 and ended Nov. 31. The TFC chairman blamed unfavorable weather conditions for the season's slow start. He said crabbers did not catch up with last year's production rate until July.

Tawes said no figures were available on how many of the Maryland processed hard crabs came from Maryland waters. But he estimated that only 211,134 dozen of the soft crabs were imported.

In 1956, the first year the TFC kept official records from packers on crab production, hard crabs totaled 34,208,146 pounds and soft crab production was 847,433 dozen.

Steel Industry Looks To Big Year

By JOHN MOODY
AP Business News Writer

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The steel industry—equipped to produce 140 million tons of steel annually—used little more than half its mammoth facilities during much of recession-ridden 1958.

Steelmen predict better things for the new year but warn that a long strike—which no one is willing to discount—over a 1959 labor contract could easily upset early forecasts.

Even a fourth-quarter business upturn couldn't save 1958 from going into the record books as the worst production year since 1949.

Profits and employment reflected empty pages in order books. Customers reportedly lived off reserve stockpiles built up in times when steel was hard to come by.

Auto manufacturers, steel's biggest customer, had a tough year and trimmed their steel ordering far below expectations.

Workers—those who escaped the furlough ax—got the final wage increase provided by the three-year contract signed in more prosperous 1956. The increase was followed by a jump in the price of steel.

Whether the total tonnage is a little over or a little under, 1958 goes into the books as the first year since 1954 that annual production did not exceed 100 million tons.

Many steel executives have predicted 1959 production will total between 108 and 110 million tons. Profit returns, while not cut back as far as production figures, were not bright.

Final earnings reports will not be tallied for several weeks but industry profits for the first nine months of 1958 totaled $494,698,674 compared with $974,851,145 in the first nine months of 1957.

The steel industry and the United Steelworkers Union signed a three-year contract in 1956.

During the two-year negotiating lull USW President David J. McDonald has been talking about big gains for the steelworkers in 1959. Many executives of big steel companies have indicated that the industry is going to be a difficult year since 1954 that annual production did not exceed 100 million tons. There have been predictions of a long strike if McDonald insists on big gains in wages and benefits.

Rain is also predicted for Friday but it is to end early in the day with temperatures expected to drop and more snow flurries likely by Friday night.

Temperatures downtown at noon today reached 40 as the sun broke through early in the morning. Happy New Year!

Water Department Looks To New Year

(This is another article of a series concerning activities of various city departments since the new Mayor and Council took office in July—six months ago.)

Commissioner G. Ray Light of the Department of Water and Electric Light points to the record in listing achievements and already is mapping plans for the year ahead.

A new eight-inch water line from Shade's Lane will be installed after January 1 and there will be a new four-inch line in the Dorn Avenue section sometime after January 1. These two lines are necessary because of low-water pressure in both sections.

An eight-inch line to the new Armory in Ridgedale Addition will be installed about the first of the year.

The Industrial Boulevard water line in South End will be completed and the repainting of the interior of the filtration plant at Lake Gordon finished next month.

In connection with the filtration plant, the department plans to ask bids on the electrification of 12 valves shortly after the new year begins.

Believes In Economy

Commissioner Light, on taking office, expressed his belief that economy could be practiced and agreed with the finance commissioner that departments must take appropriation cuts. One of his first acts was to begin studying a possibility of placing his department on a budget much in the same manner as other operating departments of the city.

At the same time, he set out to "learn his job." Operations at the filtration plant were explained to Light and city officials by its consulting engineer and Light asked for a study of provisions of the charter, ordinances, rules and regulations affecting operation of his department. At the same time, he instituted an employee-suggestion system in the interest of more efficiency in operation.

One direct effect of the employee-suggestion idea made Light change his office from a larger room in Water Department headquarters to a smaller room where billing machines had been located. The additional space gained brought more ease and efficiency in billing operations and relieved overcrowded conditions.

Timber cutting operations in the Lake Gordon watershed were reviewed to determine if they are conducted in the best interests of the city. Later the watershed was posted and no tree-cutting allowed for the remainder of the year.

Line Crews Busy

Meanwhile, Water Department crews made progress on laying the 12-inch water line which connects water mains at Oldtown Road and Virginia Avenue, as well as the laying of the line across the route of the Industrial Boulevard in the Laing Avenue area. The loop line will boost water pressure in South Cumberland and provide service for several areas where development is contemplated. More than half of the main has been completed.

Port Hill Reservoir was cleaned and cracks in the concrete surface repaired.

Two veteran employees of the department were lost as the result of a mandatory retirement ordinance passed by council when a man reaches 70. Light asked that the position of a second clerk be created for the department office. Examinations are pending for this as well as a promotional exam for chief clerk.

Personal changes of a major nature were instituted by the commissioner, after careful study by himself and with council. Two jobs were abolished at Lake Gordon.

Then in a major move, the entire Lake Gordon personnel was reorganized. Light announced the contract of the water superintendent would not be renewed and he said the changes would result ultimately in a saving of $13,000 in plant operating costs.

At the same time, wages were equalized for Water Department employees at Lake Gordon who had been receiving less than the established scale.

Eighteen Die In Highway Mishaps In '58

Two Traffic Deaths Recorded Within City During Past Year

Eighteen persons lost their lives as the result of highway accidents in Allegheny and Garrett counties during 1958.

Figures released today by the Maryland State Police at the LaVale barracks show fatal accidents this year fell four less than in 1957 when 22 persons were killed.

Of the 18 deaths a total of 15 occurred in Allegheny County, while nearby Garrett had only one highway fatality.

Two of the traffic deaths occurred within the city limits of Cumberland.

On May 26 William H. Wilson, 21, of 156 Frederick Street, was killed when his automobile collided with a Cumberland Transit Bus on Oldtown Road, and on November 1 Ronald Kenneth Wingard, 26, of 715 Maryland Avenue, was killed instantly when his car crashed into a metal utility pole at the intersection of Frederick Street and Henderson Avenue.

This single death happened on January 24 when Walter Younger, 58, of Cumberland was killed at 7:20 a. m. on U. S. Route 40, eight miles west of Frostburg. Younger was a passenger in a vehicle which crashed at Turners Curve.

Pedestrian Struck

Theodore A. Smith, 75, Eckhart, was the first person killed in 1958. He was struck by a car while walking along U. S. Route 40, two miles west of LaVale, on January 3.

Most of the accidents were due to speeding, however some were caused by drivers failing to keep right of the center line, and drinking.

Besides the two accidents already mentioned, during the month of January, one other person was killed in that month. Joseph R. Wagman, York, Pa., became the second highway death of the year when the car he was driving crashed on Route 51, five miles south of Cumberland.

The counties were free of highway deaths in February, but bounced back in March when a double-fatal was recorded on March 27 on U. S. Route 220, one mile south of Rawlings.

Two Persons Die

Killed instantly was Billy Le Roy Lease, 33, of RD 1, Cumberland, who was driving one of the two vehicles which collided, and Charles Robert Abbott, 24, RD 5, city, who was a passenger in Lease's vehicle. Abbott died in Sacred Heart Hospital on April 19.

Only one mishap was recorded in April when Adam Willard Fagbaker, 45, Friendsville, was killed instantly when the car in which he was a passenger struck a fixed object on State Route 36, four miles east of Mt. Savage.

Frank Junior Mayhew, 34, of Piedmont, was killed the following month when the car in which he was riding ran off Route 135 near Westport and rolled over an embankment.

Car Overturned

On June 28, Frank Jesse Beachley, 69, of 801 Hilltop Drive, was killed when the car he was driving overturned at the intersection of U. S. Route 40 and State Route 55.

Ronald Lee Minnick, 19, of 740 Greene Street, was a Fourth of July holiday death victim when the car in which he was riding ran off the highway on U. S. Route 220, three miles north of Cumberland.

The following day, Durrain W. Griffin, RD 4, Bedford, met death on the Chaneysville Road near Flintstone when the car he was driving left the highway and crashed.

Betty Jose, Barton, was the first female to die on county roads in 1958 when the car in which she was a passenger struck a bridge in Lonaconing. The accident occurred on August 24 and Mrs. Jose died two days later.

On September 13 at 4:55 p. m., Hiram Ezra Van Meter, 48, of RD 1, Elk Garden, was killed when his car left U. S. Route 220, six miles south of Cumberland.

Killed Near Home

A 21-year-old Barton man, Lester Lee Green, was killed instantly in a Sunday afternoon crash on Route 36, at Moscow, on November 9. The accident occurred just a few yards from his home.

Five days later in November another fatal mishap was recorded when Harry B. Bryner, 25, Farmington, Pa., met death on U. S. Route 40, five miles east of Cumberland, when his car (Continued on Page 2)

YOUTH HAS LENGTHY RECOVERY AHEAD—William Jewell, 17-year-old Narrows Park youth, has a year ahead of him in various orthopedic braces during the time his leg heals. Jewell was struck in the thigh by a slug from a high-powered rifle during deer season. Visiting him in Sacred Heart Hospital where he has been in this traction device for the past month is Rob Smith of this city. Jewell, an Allegheny High School senior, will be in this "rig" for two more months.

T. B. Finan Said Choice For Top Job

Local Attorney May Be Secretary Of State For Taxes

BALTIMORE (AP)—If the Legislature is willing, it appears as though Thomas B. Finan will be Maryland's new secretary of state and Hooper S. Miles will continue in the State Treasurer's post he has held for 24 years.

Gov.-elect Tawes declined in an interview yesterday to disclose any choices for his new administration, but he said he expected to have little trouble getting support from the heavily Democratic houses.

As the first Democratic winner of major statewide office in 12 years, Tawes will have a State House margin of 26-3 in the Senate and 116-7 in the House.

Finan, a Cumberland lawyer, was named by an informed source yesterday as Tawes' choice for the $10,000-a-year secretary of state post now held by Claude B. Hellmuth. Finan refused to confirm or deny the report.

Miles, however, freely discussed the report concerning him. The Baltimore bank official said he has agreed to a Tawes' request to serve four more years in the $2,500-a-year post.

The appointment of a secretary of state requires Senate confirmation and the treasurer is elected by a combined vote of the Senate and House. Neither choice can become official until after the General Assembly convenes Jan. 7.

Tawes says he will not announce his selections for administration posts until Monday or Tuesday—a day or two before the Legislature convenes.

Sens. George W. Della (D-Balto 6th) and Fred Malkus (D-Dorchester) have been most prominently mentioned for the Senate presidency. Della, who held the post from 1951-54, is reported to have the inside track.

Speculation over the House speakership has centered around Dels. A. Gordon Boone (D-Balto County), Blair Lee III (D-Montgomery), Perry O. Wilkinson (D-Prince Georges) and Jerome Robinson (D-Balto 4th).

Jail Sentence Given Motorist

A 24-year-old local man was sentenced to six months in the Allegheny County Jail and fined $250 on two motor vehicle charges this morning in Trial Magistrate Court.

Magistrate Morris Baran sentenced the man, Gerald Leroy Bennett, Apartment 3-F, Jane Frazier Village, after finding him guilty of driving while under the influence and driving on a revoked license.

Bennett was arrested yesterday afternoon by Lt. Raymond R. Johnston and Officer Carl Stouffer in front of his home in the village.

Henry Hart VFW Sets Dance Tonight

Henry Hart Post 1411, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will hold a New Year's Eve dance today beginning at 9 p. m.

Commander Harry Reiber said Jimmy Andrews' orchestra will play and favors and noisemakers will be distributed to those attending.

Service Set

A watch night program will be held today at 9 p. m. in Calvary Baptist Church. Included will be music, films and a devotional talk.

Perry Smith Residence Wins Yule Light Event

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Smith at 519 Washington Street has been declared the winner of the Christmas home lighting contest sponsored by the Junior Association of Commerce.

Charles Holsinger, chairman of the contest committee, said the judges expressed disappointment over the small number who entered the competition, pointing out that a large number of homes which were attractively decorated with lights had not been entered.

The judges also said only a few homes showed originality or artistic ability in Christmas lighting displays, Holsinger stated, adding that the Jaycee contest next year will be aimed at furthering these lines.

Youth Faces Long Ordeal In Braces

A young deerhunter will spend one year of his life in various forms of orthopedic devices as a result of stopping a stray shot.

William Jewell, Narrows Park, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Jewell, was hunting with a party in the foothills of Dan's Mountain in the Potomac Valley near Dawson on December 5.

Suddenly he crumpled to the ground when his right thigh bone was struck by a stray shot from a high-powered rifle from another hunting party.

Bone Shattered

Jewell's group was apparently caught in a cross fire. Police investigated the source of the bullet, but no results have been released.

The Allegheny High School senior was taken to Sacred Heart Hospital where subsequent examination by physicians disclosed the shattered main, upper bone of the right leg.

Young Jewell's leg was placed in a traction device soon after entering the hospital.

He must remain "taped up" in that uncomfortable position for another two months. Then, his mother said, he will have to wear his leg and lower part of his body in a cast, and finally, he will have to use leg braces.

To Get Home Teaching

After all that, the 17-year-old hopes to walk. His doctors say this is a distinct possibility, but he will be somewhat crippled.

Jewell and his parents have arranged with the Allegheny County Board of Education to have home teaching service until he is able to get around.

That will start after classes resume in the public schools following the holidays.

Bad Luck No Stranger

The schooling will also give Jewell something to do during this period when he has a lot of time on his hands.

Bad luck is no stranger to young Jewell. A year ago he was on Allegheny High School's football squad, but suffered a concussion to end his playing days.

He has a younger brother who has been in the hospital 21 times since his birth, and who is due for another stint in a Baltimore hospital.

Jewell is a former carrier for the Times and Allegheny Company.

Man To Face Theft Charge

County authorities are planning to place charges against Robert H. Witt, 29, Mt. Savage, who has admitted a theft at a Corriganville service station.

Also surviving in addition to her husband and mother are a daughter, Mrs. Jean Lucmper, also of Cincinnati; a sister, Mrs. Virginia Metz, Keyser, two brothers, Richard A. Rogers, Huntington, and John I. Rogers, also of this place, and a grandson.

Arrangements are incomplete pending arrival of the body at the Rogers Funeral Home here.

Norman R. Hall

Norman Richard Hall, 54, who resided at the Brooks Hotel, died yesterday at Sacred Heart Hospital where he had been a patient one day.

A native of Cumberland, he was a son of the late William and Ida Hall.

He was employed as a carman's helper for the B&O Railroad and was a member of Aerie 245, FO Eagles and the Carman International Association of America. Mr. Hall was also a veteran of World War II.

Surviving are his widow, Ella M. (Miller) Hall; a son, William Hall, Jane Frazier Village; a brother, Ross Hall, Detroit, Mich.; a sister, Mrs. Irene Slack, Wyandotte, Mich., and four grandchildren.

The body is at the Scarpelli Funeral Home where the family will receive friends from 2 to 4 p. m. and 7 to 9 p. m.

Services will be conducted at the funeral home Friday at 2 p. m. with Rev. H. F. Heckert, pastor of First Church of the Nazarene, officiating. Interment will be in Hillcrest Burial Park.

Palbearers will be Robert B. Harper, Charles R. Teets, Stanley E. Teets, E. S. Leasure and E. J. Twigg.

Cumberland Brewery Gets New Directors

Controlling Interest Purchased By Queen City Brewing Company

The board of directors of the Cumberland Brewing Company was reorganized last night after controlling interest of the firm was acquired by the Queen City Brewing Company.

The new board issued the following statement this morning: "A reorganization meeting of the board of directors of the Cumberland Brewing Company was held last evening and the following were elected directors of the company."

"C. Arthur Broemack, L. N. Duncan, George F. Hazelwood, Arch M. Hutcheson, W. Carl White and William L. Wilson."

"The directors then elected the following officers: Broemack, president; Duncan, vice president and general manager; and White, secretary-treasurer."

"The Queen City Brewing Company will continue to be operated as a separate and independent brewery and no merger or consolidation is planned with the Queen City Brewing Company."

Queen City, which makes Old German beer, began operations here in 1901, and Cumberland Brewing Company, makers of Old Export beer, opened in 1890.

Bids Sought By SRC On LaVale Road

The Maryland State Roads Commission has advertised for 15 new road projects throughout the state, including one for U. S. Route 40 through LaVale from Long to Winchester Road.

G. Bates Chaires, district SRC engineer, said the project when completed will provide a new highway through the LaVale region from the intersection of Mt. Savage Road to the site of the old Six Mile House.

S. T. Broemack, Construction Company is currently engaged in improving a .98-mile section of Route 40 from the Mt. Savage Road in Long, and the new project which has been advertised, will carry the improved highway through LaVale proper to the Winchester Road intersection.

The estimated cost of the 15 new projects has been placed at nine million dollars. SRC officials said, adding that the projects will include construction in 13 counties. The bids for the projects will be opened on different dates.

Robert O. Bonnell, SRC chairman, said the estimated cost involves more money than the commission has ever let in any day for state road projects.

George Firm Low Bidder On ABL Job

The George Construction Company of Cumberland, submitted low bid of $87,000 for additions to and repair of existing facilities at the Army Ballistics Laboratory near Cumberland, the Navy reported today.

Other bidders were Evans Construction Company of Salisbury, Md., $99,000 and Orrie R. Sensenbough, of Cumberland, $90,513.

Lt. Comdr. E. T. Lofland, Navy officer in charge of construction at the rocket research center operated by Hercules Powder Company for the Navy, said the work will cover three buildings.

It includes miscellaneous facilities and exterior services, and provides for additions, concrete work, built-up roofing, sprinkler systems, heating and cooling equipment, control apparatus, masonry, hoists, water, electrical and incidental related work.

Bids were opened yesterday by Rear Adm. A. J. Fay, officer in charge of construction for the Fifth Naval District, in his quarters at Norfolk.

Former Area Man Dies From Blast Injuries

A 29-year-old former Tucker County father of five died yesterday in Canton, Ohio, as the result of burns received in a gasoline explosion the day before.

Monroe Sherman of Waynesburg, Ohio, son of Mrs. Amanda Sherman, near Parsons, was the second person to lose his life in the blast. Harry Anderson, 18, Canton, was killed instantly.

Still in critical condition at Mercy Hospital here is Paul W. Jefferson Jr., 17, of Canton. All were employed by the M&R Auto Sales Company.

Sherman and Anderson were welding a gas tank to a car when the explosion occurred. Jefferson had just entered a concrete building, and apparently was burned while aiding the other two men.

Reports said the two dead men had been pouring gasoline into an open bucket.

Funeral services for Sherman are scheduled Saturday in Parsons.

Lakes Below Crest

Lake Gordon is one foot, four inches below the crest of the spillway and Lake Koon 19 feet, 2 inches below, a report by C. L. Broemack, assistant superintendent of Evils Creek Water Company to the Mayor and Council, showed today.

Conservation for the week ending yesterday was 81,800,000 gallons compared to 79,980,000 the same period a year ago.

More Recovery From Recession Seen In '59

By L. A. BROPHY
AP General Business Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — You can count on being better off in 1959 than in 1958. Economists are not agreed, however, on how much better off.

The recession is over. Recovery began in the spring of 1958 and continued at a steady pace until the fall. Then, the economic indexes began to slow up over the rule that had been predicted.

Reading these figures as a fever chart, it might be concluded the patient had a slight relapse. However, the economists say he is in good shape and that fully recovery will come by the end of the new year.

Your situation in the new year shapes up something like this:

To the nearly four million out of jobs, the immediate prospects for a resumption of paychecks is not bright. There probably will not be a measurable cut in unemployment until the middle of the year. There are several reasons for this. Automation in industry is going ahead at such a fast clip that fewer workers are able to turn out more and more products all the time.

While the economy is steady and going forward, the kind of production that will enable extensive rehiring of workers, is not expected to come until about mid-year.

If you are selling things, the prospects are brighter. Consumer buying was maintained during the recession and constituted one of the really comforting aspects of the downturn. The indications are that people will be in more of a buying mood in 1959 than in 1958. Personal income is expected to increase and, in point of fact, it rose for seven straight months, beginning in February last year, but declined slightly in October.

Labor disputes in some major industries were held responsible for continued at a steady pace until the fall. Then, the economic indexes began to slow up over the rule that had been predicted.

MARKET UPS AND DOWNS OF '58 — The stock market rose almost steadily during 1958 to an all-time record high in the most active trading since 1930 as it accurately anticipated a swift recovery from the business recession. Inflation fears moved many to buy stocks and sell bonds. Institutions and big investors bought heavily in what became almost a cash market. Margins rose to 90 per cent, which meant a margin buyer of $100 of stocks had to put up $90 and could borrow only $10.

After American Telephone & Telegraph Company, in an unprecedented move, voted to split its stock three-for-one, Wall Street anticipated a series of split-ups in the new year among the higher priced shares, a move that will bring prices of stocks down to levels where more shareholders are expected to do some more buying next year. Experts say the market still is strong but they warn it may not perform as spectacularly in 1959 as it did in 1958.

Job Openings Decline

BALTIMORE (AP) — The number of job openings and people October and off 23 per cent placed in jobs in Maryland during from the 6,250 of November of November were both on the down last year.

The State Department of Employment Security reported yesterday the decline in job openings was a normal season condition. It said that many retail firms also hired their Christmas help earlier than usual.

A total of 4,043 persons were placed in non-farm jobs in November, down 23.6 per cent from the 5,292 of October. The November total was 25 per cent less than the 5,391 placed in November 1957.

Employers listed 4,776 openings with the DES last month, or 28.5

Police Check Traffic Move

FROSTBURG—Frostburg patrolmen have been instructed to check both Bowers and Centre Streets at night to be sure motorists are observing the one-way ruling, as well as stop signs.

Assistant Police Chief Leslie Kreider reported several motorists have been given tickets for going through stop signs on Centre Street late at night. Some drivers have argued that there is no traffic on the streets and no danger is involved.

Kreider pointed out that numerous serious accidents involving loss of life occur after midnight when the motorists "let up" on obeying laws. He urged drivers to observe the one-way ruling and stop signs on these and connecting streets as "regulations are for the protection of the public regardless of the time."

PSC Report Discloses C&A Seeks Service Reduction

The Cumberland and Allegany Gas Company has applied for an order authorizing the discontinuance of certain gas service in the vicinity of Oakland, Hutton and Kempton in Garrett County and on Koonitz Road near Lonaconing in Allegany County, the Public Service Commission reports.

The petition has been received by the PSC of Maryland which ordered a hearing at the office of the commission in Baltimore Wednesday, January 7, at 11 a.m.

The application by the gas company requests the abandonment and discontinuance of the exercise of the parts of its franchises or rights covering certain gas service in and in the vicinity of West Oakland District 14, Hutton and Kempton, and on Koonitz Road in Lonaconing District.

Carl C. Robbins, District Manager of the C&A Company in Cumberland, said last night the request is being made to remove some old gas lines and pipe which are in bad condition.

Approximately 14 or 15 customers will be affected by the removal of the gas service and abandonment of the lines, he stated.

The gas company will replace the discontinued service with electricity or bottled gas, according to the customer's preference, he added.

If any member of the Cumberland Country Club are planning to visit Antarctica, they should be sure to take their golf clubs with them.

At the U. S. Navy base in Little America, some 750 miles from the bottom of the world, enthusiasm runs high for golf. And with the arrival of summer, proponents of the sport don their snow boots and take to the "greens."

Among the advantages for golfers in Little America is the fact they can play 24 hours a day, since the sun never sets during the seven months of summer from September through April. Navy Capt. Eugene H. Maher, who is promoting golf as a form of recreation in the Antarctic, told the United Press all one needs is a club, preferably an iron, and a ball, preferably of soft material and for obvious reasons, any color but white. "Someone should also accompany you with a camera and take pictures, because no one is going to believe you when you get back home," the captain says.

It's a long way from Cumberland to the South Pole but there are some local golfers who would thoroughly enjoy playing there. Golf, for them, is a year-round pastime and nothing like an inch or two of snow prevents them from flourishing the local course.

There is, of course, much more snow than an inch or two at the South Pole but knowing a few of these hardy Cumberland golfers, it's our opinion that they would regard Little America's 18-hole layout as a challenge.

"It doesn't make any difference if the ground is frozen or if there is snow or ice on the course. We have men who will play in almost any kind of winter weather with the possible exception of a cold rain," says Carroll Boggs, veteran pro and manager at the Cumberland Country Club.

In fact, while we were talking with Carroll by telephone this morning several golfers were playing the Christie Road course. "And I imagine there will be quite a few who plan to start 1959 by playing tomorrow," Boggs added.

Happy New Year, golfers!

Cumberland's Clifton Van Roby, who decided to call it quits this season as a basketball official in the Atlantic Coast Conference, says he plans to work only a few college games outside of the immediate area. His first assignment is scheduled for Saturday night at Buckhannon, W. Va. where he will officiate in an important game between West Virginia Wesleyan and Georgetown, Ky. Georgetown is the team that knocked off Wesleyan in the NAIA tournament last season at Kansas City. Roby was scheduled to work Saturday's game with Zigmund (Red) Mihalic of Ford City, Pa., but Red is tooting the whistle in a televised Big Ten battle that afternoon. Tony Senapole, also of Ford City, will be the second man with the striped shirt at Buckhannon. Senapole and Mihalic frequently work together and officiated here as a team in one of the playoff games in the old All American Basketball League when Cumberland's Dukes won over the Wheeling Blues. Incidentally, Roby's other "long-distance" collegiate assignment this season will take him back to the Mountain State where he will serve as one of the officials in the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference tournament the latter part of February. Quiet and retiring, the Baltimore Colts' Johnny Unitas turned down $750 in fees for television appearances Sunday night and Monday morning in New York. "I want to be with the team on the big night and I want to get home," Unitas said. Home is a modern split-level house in Towson. John Steadman, sports editor of the Baltimore News-Post, and former public relations director of the Colts, predicted Sunday that Baltimore would win the National Football League championship game by a 23-17 score. The final score was Colts 23, Giants 17. The News-Post, by the way, devoted eight pages of its Monday edition to the momentous occasion. Steadman said staffers worked all night Sunday on the paper which contained loads of feature stories and photographs. It was real Page 1 news presented in clever form and, editorially, The News-Post declared: "Not since the British fleet withdrew before the stubborn defenses of Fort Mifflin 144 years ago, has Baltimore had more reason to be proud than today as she surveys the world, clear-eyed, sore-throated and exultant from the highest point on this old orb."

Pitt's Johnny Michelson has a sure antidote for over-confidence on his football Panthers. He carries in his wallet a copy of the 1950 schedule that will take Pitt from coast to coast against the top powers of the gridiron.

More Than 300,000 To Attend Bowl Contests

One-Sided Scores Seen In Most Of Five Games

By JOE SARGIS
United Press International

More than 300,000 fans on five different football fronts will take themselves out to the old "bowl" game Thursday despite a pointed warning from odds-makers that most of the contests should wind up in one-sided fashion.

Nearly 100,000, the biggest crowd of the day, is expected at Pasadena, Calif., where Iowa is a whopping 18-point choice to trounce California in the Rose Bowl.

Randy Duncan, All-America quarterback, heads a Hawkeye team which compiled a 7-1 record this season while his opposite number is Joe Kapp, who directed the Golden Bears to a 7-3 campaign. Generally regarded the "grand-daddy" of all New Year's Day classics, the Rose Bowl game will be aired by NBC-TV and radio starting at 4:45 p.m. e.s.t.

LSU Heavy Favorite
Top-ranked Louisiana State, which was the only major unbeaten team in the country with a 10-0 slate, is a top-heavy 15-point favorite over Clemson in the Sugar Bowl tussle at New Orleans, where a crowd of 80,000 is anticipated.

Louisiana's tricky winged "T" attack is headed by Billy Cannon, the UPI's "Player of the Year," John Robinson and quarterback Warren Rabb, Clemson, which uses an unbalanced "T" formation and compiled an 8-2 record this season, relies heaviest on Harvey White for its ground gaining. The game will be carried on NBC-TV and radio, beginning at 1:45 p.m. e.s.t.

The men who make the odds claim the Orange Bowl game at Miami, Fla., should be one-sided too, with Oklahoma (9-1) a 13-point choice over Syracuse (8-1). Syracuse Coach Ben Schwartzwalder summed up the Sooners perfectly.

"Oklahoma does things so well," he said. "And they do them so fast. And so many people do it."

Names Same Lineup
Oklahoma Coach Bud Wilkinson named virtually the same starting team as he did last season. The only exception was sophomore Bob Cornell, who will start at quarterback in place of David Baker, dropped for failure to meet academic standards. CBS will carry the game on TV and radio at 1:45 p.m. e.s.t.

Texas Christian and the U. S. Air Force Academy were expected to participate in the closest game of the day at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, Tex. Texas Christian (8-2) is "only" an eight-point favorite over the Air Force (9-0-1) although a recent snow could make the field soggy and throw the quoted odds out of kilter.

A crowd of 75,000 can look for a duel between speedy Jack Spikes of TCU and hard-charging Steve Gallos of the Air Force. Those who can't make it to Dallas Thursday can catch the game on CBS-TV or radio at approximately 3:30 p.m. e.s.t.

Prairie View A&M meets Langston (Okla.) in the Prairie View Bowl at Houston, Tex. Prairie View A&M (7-2) is the choice over Langston (4-3) in a game that probably will attract 6,000 fans.

Wyoming and Hardin Simmons, a pair of southwestern football powers, get in their "howling" a bit earlier when they meet today in the 24th annual Sun Bowl Game at El Paso, Tex. The game should draw 13,000, and Wyoming is a one touchdown favorite over Coach Sammy Baugh's Hardin Simmons' Cowboys.

UNBEATEN ROMNEY TO MEET ALUMNI
Only one district quint will be in action tonight as the undefeated Romney High cagers shoot for their fifth triumph by facing the Alumni on the Pioneer's court.

Coach Clyde Green's hoopsters have run up victories over Ridgeley, West Virginia School for the Deaf, Fort Ashby and Paw Paw in four Potomac Valley Conference starts. The Pioneers have been idle since December 19 when whipping the Pirates.

Colts Win Six Places On UPI All-Pro Team

By EARL WRIGHT
NEW YORK (UPI)—The Baltimore Colts and New York Giants, who played the National Football League's first "sudden death" overtime game last Sunday, today won 10 berths on United Press International's 1958 All-Star team.

Baltimore, new league champion, placed quarterback John Unitas, halfback Lenzy Moore, and Raymond Berry and tackle Jim Parker on the offensive unit. End Gino Marchetti and tackle Gene Lipscomb of the Colts won spots on the defensive platoon. New York, Eastern Division champion, placed tackle Roosevelt Brown and center Ray Wietecha on the offensive unit while linebacker Sam Huff and safetyman Jim Patton won places on defense.

The mythical two-platoon team was selected in voting by sports writers who covered the 1958 campaign in the 11 league cities.

Rams Place Three
The Los Angeles Rams placed three players on the offensive unit, Del Shofner at end, Duane Putnam at guard and Jon Arnett at halfback. Guard Dick Stantel of the Washington Redskins and fullback Jim Brown of the Cleveland Browns rounded out the attacking team.

The others who won berths on the defensive unit were end Gene Brito of Washington, tackle Ernie Ladd of Pittsburgh, linebacker Larry Stewart of Detroit, fullback Larry Brown of Pittsburgh, and defensive end Larry Brown of Detroit.

Fairgo Seen Keeping 1959 Racing Dates

BALTIMORE (AP)—Unless Bel Air officials request a change, the 1959 racing dates for Maryland's five half-mile tracks will remain as originally scheduled by the State Racing Commission.

A meeting was held with track operators yesterday in the wake of talk about shifting racing from Cumberland and Hagerstown because of competition from Charles Town, W. Va.

But Cumberland and Hagerstown officials said they wanted to race on their own tracks and not shift to Marlboro.

Commission Chairman D. Eldred Rinehart gave Bel Air the right to seek a change later in its dates now scheduled as May 18-30.

Bel Air requested extra time to decide whether it would like to shift its meet to the two weeks prior to the Aug. 31 Timonium opening, expressing a fear there would be a shortage of horses in May between the major track meetings at Pimlico and Delaware Park.

Rinehart promised Hagerstown that it would not be asked to face World Series competition in 1960. The track will have to buck the series and Charles Town in 1959.

After the commission meeting, representatives of the Pocomoke Agricultural Fair Assn. met with Marlboro officials, giving rise to speculation the Eastern Shore group will later request dates at Marlboro.

The racing commission last month rejected a request that the Pocomoke group be allowed to hold a meeting at the Ocean City harness track. The association has been authorized 12 days of racing by the Legislature, but it has no track.

Bell Gives Pro Football Leader Lacking In Baseball

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Next to the play-off itself, there is one thing we will remember about the 1958 football season. It is the picture of Larry MacPhail sitting in a Yankee Stadium box seat at the Colts-Giants championship game and comparing the situation to baseball.

"I never believed that pro football would catch on like this," he said in a great coat, a floppy hat covering his head. One of the great showmen of our time was looking at the third successive sell-out crowd on a Thursday night.

As Larry MacPhail stresses, baseball could use a little leadership of this type.

Alumni Nips LaSalle Five
Holding the varsity to three points in the final quarter, LaSalle High's Alumni cagers squeezed out a 42-36 victory last night on the SS. Peter and Paul court. The loss was the fifth for LaSalle in seven tries.

Coach George Goetz's hoopsters had held 15-12 and 23-20 quarter leads until the Grads knotted the game at 33-33 going into the final stanza.

Eleven of the 14 Grads who played crashed the scoring column with Ricky Harris pacing the attack on three goals and a free throw for seven points.

Center Mike Mackert looked scoring honors with eight points while Jack Bahon hooped seven counters for the varsity.

The Explorers next start will be Friday against Ridgeley on the SS. Peter and Paul court.

Controls Television
"He put in the sudden-death extra period to assure the finality of the championship game."

The National Football League is paid for television, but television where Bell wants it to be. No TV in a city where a game is being played.

Could baseball do the same? "Of course it could," said MacPhail. "But they're so busy being silly in baseball that they don't have time to think like Bell, who acts while baseball officials talk."

Ford Frick, the baseball commissioner, contends the major leagues can do nothing about curbing the televising of their games into minor league territory because that might be in violation of anti-trust laws. Bell obviously refused to listen to legal advice of that nature, ordered the ban on TV where it would hurt.

"I told Dan Topping that if the National League was ridiculous enough to leave New York (the American League should put another club in Yankee Stadium), added MacPhail. "That practically would turn the National League into a western league, which is about all it amounts to now anyway."

Worth Reporting
MacPhail, currently breeding cattle and running horses, has never had a flop, except when he was one of a group which tried to kidnap the Kaiser, and then it was close. He revived the Cincinnati and Brooklyn franchises, refurbished Yankee Stadium. He introduced night baseball to the majors, campaigned against it being overdone.

So when MacPhail puts the job turned in by Bert Bell in pro football over anything baseball has done in more recent years, it is worth reporting.

Bell perhaps is the most capable administrator in sports today.

Consider the champion Colts. Five years ago, when the Dallas Texans were moved to Baltimore, Bell went to Carroll Rosenbloom, the textile, plastics and electronics magnate, and asked him to buy the defunct franchise. Bell had coached Rosenbloom as a halfback at Pennsylvania.

"He did not ask me to buy the franchise," recalls Rosenbloom. "He beat me over the head until I came up with the money."

Bell practically shoved Don Kellelt into the Colts' general manager's job.

Rosenbloom gave the franchise financial security. Kellelt got the coach, Webb Ewbank, and the players, Johnny Unitas and Alan Ameche, for two. Baltimore got

New Maryland Coach May Be Named Soon

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)—A decision on a new football coach at the University of Maryland probably will be made in the next week.

Athletic Director William Cobey said last night he expects the choice to be made public sometime between New Year's Day and the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. (NCAA) meetings in Cincinnati next week.

He added it is possible a decision will come later, although he hopes it will come before the Cincinnati meetings.

Cobey and Dr. Wilson H. Elkins, university president, have been meeting privately to discuss candidates for the jobs vacated Dec. 9 by Tommy Mont.

They interviewed John Bridgers, Baltimore Colts' defensive line coach, who told newsmen afterward he would like the job. "I consider it a move upward for me," he said.

Bridgers added that the Maryland has neither been offered nor rejected. He said he believed no one had been offered the position yet.

Others mentioned for the vacancy include Tom Harp, backfield coach at West Point; Bill Leckonby, football coach at Lehigh, and John Steigman, head coach at Rutgers.

Cobey indicated the field of prospective candidates is being rapidly narrowed down and that further study of the backgrounds of the candidates is being made.

Mont quit after the university refused to extend his three-year contract. His record was 4-4 last season and 5-5 in 1957.

Lane And Ortiz Fight In Miami
MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—Kenny Lane and Carlos Ortiz, both classy boxers, will fight it out tonight in the Miami Beach Auditorium in what is unofficially an elimination bout for a crack at the lightweight championship.

Lane, who lost a split decision to lightweight champion Joe Brown in Houston, is rated the No. 1 contender by Ring Magazine. Ortiz, who has lost only one fight in 30, is rated the top contender by the National Boxing Association.

The 10-round, nationally televised bout is rated a toss-up. Both are light punchers but are considered top-notch brawlers.

Yanks' Victory One Of Biggest Upsets In Cup History

Take Title As Olmedo Is Winner In Singles

By ERIC RIEL
BRISBANE, Australia (UPI)—Alex (The Chief) Olmedo, a Peruvian on loan to the United States Davis Cup team, whipped Australia's tennis monopolists almost single-handedly and the Yanks reclaimed the famed mug today by winning the challenge round, three matches to two.

Olmedo clinched the best-of-five series for the U.S. by out-classing Ashley Cooper, 6-3, 4-6, 6-4, 8-6. Then, with the Cup already in American hands, more than 18,000 groaning fans watched Mal Anderson turn back Barry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, 7-5, 13-11, 11-9 in a "who cares" final match.

The Yanks' stunning victory will go down as one of the greatest upsets in the 58-year history of the challenge round. The odds were stacked high against them when the matches began Monday, for Australia had won the Cup seven times in the last eight years and had kept it "down under" since 1935.

CUP COPPER—Alex Olmedo, nervous young Peruvian on the United States Davis Cup team, scored the biggest upset in the history of Cup competition at Brisbane, Australia, to win back the mug for the U. S. He won the deciding match from Ashley Cooper. (AP Photo)

South Rated Slight Edge In Bowl Game

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—The 6.4-yard rushing average of Florida State's Bobby Rynn gives the South team for Saturday's Senior Bowl a slight edge in that department.

Coach Paul Brown's Southerners averaged four yards rushing during the past season. The North team of Joe Kuharich averaged 3.9 yards.

Rynn's leading average is followed by a 5.6 figure posted by Georgia's big fullback, Theron Sapp. The North's leading ground-gainer, Ted Cohn of George Washington, also has a 5.6 average.

Other leading runners for the North are Mike McCluskey, Washington, 4.9; Joe Morrison, Cincinnati, 4.7; and Chuck Murrell, Washington State, 4.3.

The South's Alex Hawkins of South Carolina averaged 4.7 and Don Brown of Houston 4.4 during the year.

In aggregate figures, the South runners picked up 3,448 yards in 187 carries, compared with 2,980 yards in 731 tries by the North backs.

The South rushed for 297 points, 44 by Rynn. Morrison's 50 points was tops among 224 for the North.

Despite such fine ball-carriers, both Brown and Kuharich have indicated they intend to go to the air quite a bit.

The South holds a 5-4 lead in the Senior Bowl series, which has marked the pro debut of numerous players now in professional ranks.

About 38,000 fans are expected. NBC will televise the game, blacking out an area within a 100-mile radius of Mobile.

Kickoff is at 2 p. m. (CST).

Circleville Wins First, Tops Stags

Coming from behind in the last period, Circleville High's cagers won their first game in six starts with a 60-55 victory over Elk Garden on the winners' court.

The Indians, trailing by 47-43 going into the final heat, outscored the invaders 15 to 8 for their first PVC triumph in four attempts. The loss was the fourth in a row for the Stags.

Jerald Milavec of the losers was the game's top point-maker with 30 markers while Jack Bland and Larry Wimer registered 24 and 21 for the victors.

Circleville's G. F. 25, 21, 25, 24; Elk Garden's G. F. 20, 21, 24, 20.

Score by periods: Circleville 14, 13, 13, 10; Elk Garden 13, 17, 17, 12.

Officials—Patterson and Clark.

Capt. Perry Jones Praised By Olmedo

BRISBANE, Australia (AP)—Alex Olmedo, the modest Peruvian youngster who sent the Davis Cup back to the United States after three years Down Under, had nothing but praise for Capt. Perry Jones of Los Angeles today.

"Mr. Jones was wonderful," he said. "He kept telling me to fight and that I had him (Ashley Cooper), to beat down and not let him go away."

"He has done a tremendous job with the team and has taken a lot of abuse. I hope he gets full credit."

Hawks Defeat Cincy Seventh Straight Time

By United Press International
The St. Louis Hawks can thank Cincinnati for its six and one-half game lead in the National Basketball Association's Western Division.

St. Louis, sparked by Bob Pettit, Jack McMahon and Cliff Hagan, came from behind in a surging 35-point third quarter Tuesday night to defeat the Royals, 119-104, for the seventh straight time this season.

Boston Streak Halted

Philadelphia halted Boston's 11-game winning streak by beating the Celtics, 112-105, New York edged Detroit, 93-90, and Minneapolis dropped Syracuse, 118-113.

Cincinnati, leading St. Louis 53-50 at halftime, fell apart in the third quarter as McMahon put the Hawks ahead, 57-55, with a set shot and then teamed with Pettit and Hagan for the crusher. Pettit scored 27 points, McMahon had 25 and Hagan netted 18. Jack Twyman, Cincinnati's leading scorer, led the Royals with 25.

Philadelphia opened a 20-point lead in the first half over Boston and went on to win its fourth straight. Paul Arizin's 35 points and rookie Guy Rodgers' neat floor work paced the Warriors. Bill Sharman, who helped Boston close to 88-85 with about five minutes to go, led the Celtics with 26 points.

Knicks Triumph

Richie Guerin and Kenny Sears, scoring 24 points each, hit on key baskets to give the Knickerbockers a close triumph over Detroit. The Pistons gained a 50-49 margin in the third quarter, but couldn't halt a New York onslaught. Yardley topped Detroit with 21 points.

Minneapolis handed Syracuse its sixth straight loss while snapping a four-game losing streak. The game was tied 18 times with Vern Mikkelsen finally giving Minneapolis the lead for good, 76-75, with a three pointer in the third quarter. Syracuse's Dolph Schayes scored 30 points with 30 points, while Dick Garmaker led the winners with 27.

Fort Hill Sextet Wins To Extend Undefeated Streak

Apparently the 1938-39 edition of the Fort Hill High girls' basketball team has picked up an old habit—winning games.

Coach Henrietta Snyder's sextet launched the season yesterday by whipping the Alumni, 53-34. "That stretches the district's longest current win streak in any sport to 46 games over the past five seasons."

The Grads held the upper hand, 14-13, at the first period but fell behind, 32-22, at intermission and were on the short end of a 44-30 count at the third quarter.

Jankey and Shaffer led the winners with 18 and 12 tallies while Annabelle Leatherman, Pat Thompson and Nancy Bell paced the Alumni with 12, 11 and eight markers.

HYNDMAN DEFEATS ALUMNI BY 54-50

Although outscored from the field, 21 goals to 20, Hyndman High's hoopers dropped in 14 of 25 free throws to only 8 of 21 for the Grads to whip the Alumni, 50-50, last night at Hyndman.

Ed Thompson paced the Hoopers to their third triumph in four tries with 19 points while Bruce May paced 13 for the Grads.

Kentucky Scared, Cincinnati Halted

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press International
The downfall of top-ranked Cincinnati from the unbeaten ranks and the one-point narrow escapes of Kentucky and Kansas State stole the basketball limelight today from the crowning of six new major tournament champions.

Kansas State, Michigan, Penn State, Louisiana State, Miami of Ohio, and Mississippi State joined the honor roll of holiday carnival champions through victories Tuesday night.

Campy To Go South With Dodger Team

GLEN COVE, N.Y. (UPI)—Campy's going south again with the Dodgers and, man, he thinks this is "the greatest New Year ever."

Although still confined to a wheelchair, Roy Campanella couldn't keep the excitement out of his voice as he talked about "my new job with the Dodgers" at his home here today.

"It's the kind of thing I wanted to do all my life," said the former Dodger catcher, "and now I'll be able to be right back with all the fellas again."

All this was made possible Tuesday when Vice President Buzzo Bayasi of the Dodgers announced in Los Angeles that Campanella will rejoin the club as a special coach for Dodger youngsters at Vero Beach, Fla., during the 1939 spring training season.

"Campy's rehabilitation following his tragic accident the night of Jan. 28 is sufficiently advanced so that he can help us," Bayasi said. Later, Bayasi added, Campanella will have official status with the Dodgers as assistant supervisor of scouting in the eastern area of the U.S.

"I was tickled when they put the proposition to me," Campanella confessed, "and it didn't take me long to say yes."

"Being away from the club all year really hurt. You got no idea how much. And now everything is all right again."

Schoendienst Not Forgotten, Mail Pours In

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Red Schoendienst is flat on his back in a hospital, convalescing from tuberculosis, but an avalanche of mail shows the fans haven't forgotten him.

The graceful second baseman of the Milwaukee Braves said the thousands of get-well letters have helped him in his determination to return to big league baseball.

"I'll play again," the 33-year-old Schoendienst said in an interview with the Globe-Democrat, "even if I miss next year."

Several nuns at the Mt. St. Rose Hospital occasionally have been pressed into service to help sort his mail. His father-in-law, Jim O'Reilly, one day counted 2,136 letters and cards in a box. Four other such boxes are in Red's room.

Red's physician is guarded in his comments about Schoendienst's condition.

"But he is an excellent patient, the doctor said. "He's a smart fellow, playing every angle to get well as fast as he can."

Glenn Spencer, Former Pier, Dies

BINGHAMTON, N.Y. (UPI)—Glenn Spencer, former pitcher for the Pittsburgh Pirates and New York Giants, died Tuesday at the age of 53.

Spencer, a native of Corning, N.Y., was with the Pirates from 1928 through 1932, during which time he won 23 games and lost 28. Spencer served as a relief pitcher with the world champion 1933 Giants, turning in a 0-2 record that season.

The former big leaguer was an executive with a local meat packing company at the time of his death.

Pittsburgh Wrestlers Annex Title Again

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)—The University of Pittsburgh last night won its third straight team championship in the 27th annual Wilkes College Open wrestling championship.

Pitt picked up four first places, one second and one third for a total of 67 points. Second place Michigan trailed with 41, Lock Haven (Pa.) State Teachers College was third with 36. Maryland tied for fifth with 29.

Forty seven teams participated in the tournament.

NC State, Duke, Terps Given Lifts

By The Associated Press
The Atlantic Coast Conference's basketball reputation got a much-needed boost from North Carolina State yesterday when the Wolfpack pulled one of the big upsets of the season—a 69-60 victory over No. 2 ranked Cincinnati in the Dixie Classic at Raleigh.

Duke and Maryland also scored wins but the other holiday participants fell before non-conference foes.

Topping the list of losers was fourth-ranked North Carolina, knocked out of the undefeated class by Michigan State 75-58.

N. C. State, No. 5 in the nation, clashes with Michigan State tonight for the Dixie Classic championship.

Duke managed to edge Yale 56-53 in the tourney's consolation semifinals.

The other conference team in the tourney, Wake Forest, bowed to Louisville 74-64.

Maryland won consolation honors in the Sugar Bowl Tournament at New Orleans by clipping Loyola of the South 54-49.

In the Carrousel Classic at Charlotte, N. C., South Carolina lost to Bucknell 67-65 and Clemson was dumped by Pittsburgh 60-50. Both games were consolation semifinals. Clemson and South Carolina met this afternoon to determine seventh place in the tourney standings.

In the Raleigh tourney, North Carolina plays Cincinnati for third place, Duke takes on Louisville for fifth, and Wake Forest goes against Yale for seventh.

Where Is He Now?

Tommy Bridges in Tire Business

United Press International
Tommy Bridges put in all his 16 major league seasons plying for the Detroit Tigers. Small at 180 pounds, Tommy had the best curve ball in the trade and for three straight years starting in 1934 he scored 20 or more victories. Tops was 23-11 in 1935. During that stretch he led the Tigers to two pennants and one world championship (1935).

In World Series play he had a 4-1 record highlighted by his 1935 victory in the sixth game against the Chicago Cubs. With the score tied 3-3 in the ninth, Stan Hack tripled off Tommy but Bridges then retired the next three men, stranding Hack, and the Tigers wrapped up the series with the winning run in their half of the inning.

Whatever happened to Tommy Bridges? Now 52 he still lives in Detroit where he is associated with an auto tire firm.

Martinsburg Trips Allegany In Final Seconds By 67-64

Martinsburg High's cagers showed last night they will have to be reckoned with before the championship of the Cumberland Valley Athletic League is decided.

The Bulldogs, racked by graduation, staged a 67-64 first half, had brought Alco back on top following Bartles' bucket, 62-61, but a jump shot from the side by John Karas regained the margin for Martinsburg, 63-62. Jerry Horton, when fouled by Charles Hensell, dropped in his pair of penalty pitches and Alco was in front, 64-63, with less than a minute remaining.

Bartles' bucket gave the Bulldogs a 65-64 lead and Alco couldn't catch the invaders as time ran out following the final Martinsburg bucket. Shook and center Ben Miller both missed free throw attempts in the final seconds for Alco as did Martinsburg's Barstok, the latter with 14 seconds to go.

Six Foul Out

Fifty-four personals were plastered on the two quints with six cagers making their exits by that route. The Bulldogs lost four of their starters, Olen Haynes being the first with 1:25 to go in the third heat. B. B. Butts, Sid Pitzer and Jerry Stuckey were waived out in the final heat as were "Baldy" Powell and Miller of the Campers.

Alco, which led by 17-12, 38-31 and 53-46 at the quarter posts, had six less goals than the West Virginians, hitting on 16 of 59 shots to 24 of 71 for the Bulldogs. The Campers had 46 tries from the 15-foot line and stuffed in 28. Martinsburg made good on 19 of 35 attempts.

Shook's sensational first-half bucket bombing kept the Campers in front while Schell, who tied with Shook for scoring honors with 22 tallies, and Pitzer spearheaded the second-half drive by the Bulldogs. Pitzer and Gary Frisby of Alco, both caged 19 points while Horton finished with 14.

The loss was the second for the Campers in five starts, the non-league triumph being at the expense of the Alumni, 61-60 last Friday night.

Grads Beaten By Sentinels

The Fort Hill varsity was outnumbered, 18 to 8, but not outscored last night by the Alumni as the Sentinels of coach Wayne Boor posted their fourth basketball win in five showings with a 49-37 triumph on the Hilltoppers court.

Zed by forward Charlie Robinson, the Sentinels hooped 15 goals and made good on 19 of 34 charity tosses. The Alumni cagers hit 11 times from the field and added 11 of 28 penalty pitches.

Robinson had six goals and four free throws for 16 points while Leroy Henry rimmed 10 markers on a pair of goals and six penalty pitches.

Jerry Meeks and Bill McCall shared a dozen of the Grads' counters as 11 players hit the scoring column.

The Sentinels' next outing will be against Martinsburg this Friday in a CVAL clash on the Bulldogs' home floor.

Peter Lukas, Your Host at The Fabulous
CLARYSVILLE INN
Route 40 West At Clarysville.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Up until this week, it had been several months since I dropped in to see my old friends, Laura, Karl, Nick, Leslie and Glenn. And now that I have, I kind of wish I hadn't. It's all been too confusing.

Laura, Karl, Nick, Leslie and Glenn are, of course, occupants of the NBC-TV daytime soap opera, "Today Is Ours." Or at least they were until this Monday when something strange began happening inside their snug electronic world.

It was this: NBC-TV started to sneak a new soap, "Young Dr. Malone," inside "Today Is Ours" with the intention of eventually replacing the old show entirely. Meanwhile, the threads of the two are being woven together.

"Today Is Ours" now brings you the story of young Dr. Malone, is the way an off-camera announcer put it and I guess that gives the show the most painful title since that 1939 Hollywood epic, "Joe and Ethel Turp Call on the President."

However unwieldy the signature of the show though, it is not nearly as burdensome as the relationships between the characters whose number seems to be greater than the entire cast of World War II.

There is, as I said, Glenn who is in love with Laura who has a son, Nick, whose father, Karl, is now married to Leslie. They're from "Today Is Ours."

Then there's the new crowd: Old Dr. Malone who is married to old Mrs. Malone who are the parents of young Dr. Malone who is treating Elsie who has psychosomatic colitis and is unphysiologically pregnant through a secret marriage to Arthur who is the son of Dr. Wellborn who seems to be in league with Elsie's mother who is a horror.

I should also mention that Leslie is sick, Elsie—whoever she is—is sick, that Glenn was almost killed Tuesday in an auto accident, that young Dr. Malone refuses to go to Martha's party (or is it Marty's pushover?), that old Dr. Malone has told Fran, who is in love with young Dr. Malone, that young Dr. Malone doesn't love him, much less her.

Well, I don't know for sure, Doc. But it occurs to me you all may be sick, sick, sick.

CBS-TV's Garry Moore show carried the Look Magazine TV awards Tuesday night and it struck me there was something with a TV awards system that ignored in 1958: The Jack Paar Show, Victor Borge, All The King's Men, The Old Man, Lemmy Bernstein, Paul Muni, Maureen Stapleton, Julie Harris, Chris Plummer, Neville Brand, George Scott, Wayne and Shuster and Elaine and Mike.

The Channel Swim: Jonathan Winters and Jack Paar have patched up their mild feud—Winters is booked in for Paar's Jan. 16 NBC-TV show. Morlon Downey Jr. will make his TV debut as a singer on the ABC-TV Dick Clark Show Jan. 10.

The Ed Murrow-Fred Friendly team, who used to churn out the See It Now specials for CBS-TV, have a one hour special on the Virginia school integration problem ticketed in for Jan. 21 on CBS-TV. Danny Thomas soon will start shooting his first Western for CBS-TV's Zane Grey Theatre—It's called "A Thread of Respect" and will appear in March.

Ben Hecht's test film for a new series called The Ten Commandments will be shown on NBC-TV's Kaleidoscope Feb. 8. Robert Morse will star in a proposed new ABC-TV series, Willie, whose test film will be shot in New York in about one month—it centers around a Brooklyn clerk.

Fleming Hospitalized

Police and Fire Commissioner Philmore P. Fleming, 516 Sheridan Place, was admitted to Memorial Hospital last night. He has been ill the past several days.

Newman Appointed To Chamber Post

George B. Newman, vice president of the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company, has accepted the chairmanship of the membership committee of the Cumberland Chamber of Commerce.

As soon as the committee is fully organized, it will begin work on a 1959 membership drive. At present, the Chamber has some 430 members.

CURLY!! I DIDN'T EXPECT TO BE MET ON THE STEPS OF THE POTOMAC

I WAS REALLY OFF TO THE OCEAN BOWL TO SEE THE AIR FORCE ACADEMY PLAY TEXAS CHRISTIAN, BUT...

THE RUSSIAN HAVE A SUBMARINE SUBMERGED IN THE TIDAL BASIN WITH THE PERISCOPE CAMOUFLAGED AS DRIFTWOOD

WITH A TELESCOPIC LENS THEY PHOTOGRAPH EVERY ONE WHO USES THE RIVER GATE ENTRANCE TO THE PENTAGON!

SERIOUSLY, CURLY...

WHAT MAKES YOU THINK I'M KIDDING?

STEVE, IT'S SHAMEFUL HOW YOU CONTINUE TO FALL INTO THESE JOBS

ALL YOU DO IS GO SOME PLACE AND MEET BEAUTIFUL DANCES—THEREBY CAUSING DISSENSION AND UNREST AMONG OTHER AIR FORCE BACHELOR TYPES

THIS IS THE WAY THE CONE MELTS—AS THEY DON'T SAY AS THEY DON'T SAY—ON MADISON AVENUE

AN' AIR FORCE OFFICER IN A VERY SENSITIVE JOB WAS KICKED HOME TOWN FOR A POSITION IN THE BIG CITY

RECENTLY WE HAD A DISTURBING CALL FROM THE BROTHERS—HIS SISTER HAD GONE WORKING—ALTHOUGH SHE HAD NO OTHER INCOME

...NOW SHE TURNS UP AT ONE OF THE WINTER SPORTS RESORTS IN EUROPE—VERY NEAR TO THE FRINGE OF THE IRON CURTAIN!

READY TO START YOUR EXCAVATING FOR THE DAY, DESMOND?

YES, SIR, AND I'D LIKE TO FIND THAT SCARAB TODAY, MR. KIRBY. I ACHE ALL OVER...

BY ALL MEANS, DO SO, DESMOND. MAKE SURE SOME OF THE NATIVE HELPERS SEE YOU DO IT UP...

A FEW HOURS LATER...

I SAY, GENTLEMEN, WHAT HAVE WE HERE? IT APPEARS TO BE A GEMSTONE SCARAB DATING FROM THE REIGN OF KARA-HOTEP!

WE ARCHEOLOGISTS APPRAISE THINGS ONLY BY THEIR HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE...

BUT THIS IS UNDOUBTEDLY AN IMPORTANT RELIC OF KARA-HOTEP'S REIGN. WE'LL CELEBRATE BY KNOCKING OFF WORK AND HAVING A SPOT OF TEA...

DESMOND SHOULD BE BRINGING THE SCARAB IN SOON, RIP. IS EVERYTHING ELSE READY?

YES, CINDY. WE'LL LOSE NO TIME IN GETTING WORD OF HIS DISCOVERY TO THE WORLD...

WHY?

BECAUSE—EVERY TIME WE'RE GONE FOR TEN MINUTES WE COME BACK TO FIND IT ALL FILLED WITH SNOW!!

OH—I FIRED THAT BEFORE WE LEFT!

I KICKED THE WHOLE BUNCH OUT OF IT—DON'T WORRY—THERE WON'T BE ANY SNOW PLIN' UP IN THERE ANY MORE!

I SEE WHY "MURDER" IDENTIFY MUST LEAK OUT TILL WE'RE SURE THAT RED AGENTS WERE BEHIND HIS DISAPPEARANCE, SUH, BUT—

IT'S NOT ONLY TO PROTECT HIM FROM RED TROOPS. HE CAN HELP US WITH OTHER VITAL INFORMATION FROM HIS SATELLITE COUNTRY!

BUT WHAT ABOUT MURDER? CAN'T WE REPORT ALL THE HIM MISSING YET?

ONLY AS A LAST RESORT! HE'S TOO PROMINENT. ALL THE PUBLICITY AND INVESTIGATION WOULD QUICKLY UNCOVER HIS MISSION HERE!

FIRST WE'LL INTENSIFY THE SEARCH FOR SOMEONE WHO MIGHT HAVE SEEN A HAND OF MURDER'S DESCRIPTION! IT MAY GIVE US A LEAD!

OKAY...BUT IF WE LEARN NOTHING TODAY, I INSIST ON NOTIFYING THE POLICE, MR. WALLACE!

WHILE REHEWING OLD ACQUAINTANCES EASY INQUIRES ABOUT MURDER WITHOUT USING HIS NAME

HOPE...DON'T RECALL SEEING ANYONE OF THAT DESCRIPTION, EASY!

ME NEITHER. WELL, I MUST RUN EASY! IT'S NICE SEEING YOU AGAIN!

NO, I CAN'T RECALL ANYBODY LIKE THAT. BUT THE TOWN'S FULL OF STRANGERS SINCE THAT BOMBING OUTRAGE. YOU KNOW...INVESTIGATORS AND CURIOSITY SEEKERS...

WHY NOT ASK THAT COP EASY? HE'S GOT AN EAGLE EYE AND NEVER FORGETS A FACE!

THANKS, FELLAS! I WILL!

WE'VE ALL SHOWN THAT WE CAN SAVE HERE AND THERE, WHICH COULD BE THE ANSWER TO THE HIGH COST OF LIVING...WHICH IS WHY THIS WHOLE DEAL STARTED!

HAPPY NEW YEAR, ALL!

AND AFTER US COMING ALL THE WAY OVER HERE TO CHECK ON IT?

GEE, WHAT A LOUSY BREAK!

I DON'T SEE HOW THAT'LL EFFECT OUR PROJECT

YOU DON'T?

NO...OREOPITHECUS HIMSELF IS NOT VITAL TO OUR RESEARCH. OUR CONCERN IS WITH THE AREA AND STRATA FROM WHICH HE WAS REMOVED

THIS WHERE WE'RE TO GET UP THE TIME MACHINE?

YES...IT'S NOT IN THE MOST LUXURIOUS QUARTER OF GROSSETO, BUT IT'S HANDY TO A PLENTIFUL SUPPLY OF ELECTRIC POWER

OKAY, LET'S MOVE IN AND GET TO WORK!

THE ITALIAN AUTHORITIES WILL GO ALONG WITH US ON THIS PROJECT?

YES, THEY'LL COOPERATE IN EVERY WAY

How Discards Beat Maestro

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

There never was a rivalry at bridge like that between the late Hal Sims and the late Ely Culbertson. In today's hand, "The Professor," as Hal called Ely, managed to defeat "The Maestro," as Ely called Hal, at one of Hal's favorite three no-trump contracts.

Ely opened the seven of clubs and dummy's ten won the trick. Hal started after the diamond suit and Ely went into a huddle before making his first discard.

"What's your problem, Professor?" asked Hal.

"I'm trying to figure out a hand of yours that I can beat," replied Ely. "And I think I have."

Ely proceeded to discard the deuce of spades and six and three of hearts as Hal ran out the diamond suit. Hal's next play was a heart in dummy's ace and Ely's king fell. Now Hal threw show two aces and Cliff raised him to six.

Cliff's decision was indeed wise. If he had been declarer a diamond would have been opened and he would have lost the first two tricks. With South as declarer nothing could touch six and with the actual spade opening South had no trouble making seven. He simply won the first spade lead in dummy, drew trumps and set up his club suit for discards of both dummy's diamonds.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: If I told you how much my husband and I wanted a baby you wouldn't believe it. We've both been going to doctors for 8 years and they say there is absolutely nothing wrong with either one of us. We've tried every suggestion we've ever heard of from friends and doctors, but so far no luck. My doctor says there is only one thing left for me to try and that is having all my teeth pulled. I never had any trouble with my teeth and I am only 27, but if that's causing my trouble I am willing to do it. Have you ever heard that this would help? Let me know right away as I'm waiting to hear.

WANTING A FAMILY

DEAR WANTING: I don't know what kind of doctor you are presently consulting, but I urge you NOT to have all your teeth pulled until you have seen another doctor. Ask your American Medical Association to recommend a specialist for your difficulty.

DEAR ABBY: I like a boy from school and he is 15 and I am 14. He asked if he could see me sometime and I said sure if he would come to my house. He said he wouldn't come to my house but he would meet me anywhere else. I said: My mother doesn't like me to meet boys she has never seen. What should I do? FORTY-FOUR

DEAR FORTY-FOUR: Tell him if he won't come to your house like a gentleman, you can't see him. If he doesn't come, consider yourself lucky.

DEAR ABBY: Will you help an 83-year-old widow? I have no children, and only one nephew and several cousins but none of them have bothered to visit me in years. I have a neighbor who comes in to see me every day and I feel free to call on her any hour of the day or night. She's always bringing me goodies she has made and I don't know what I'd do without her. So what little money I have I would like to leave to my neighbor, but friends tell me that anyone over 80 is not of sound mind, according to the law, and kinfolk automatically come first. Is this correct, Dear Abby?

DEAR ABBY: "Soundness of mind" is not determined by age. Ask a lawyer or call your local Legal Aid Society.

OVER 80 BUT SOUND MIND

DEAR OVER: "Soundness of mind" is not determined by age. Ask a lawyer or call your local Legal Aid Society.

DEAR ABBY: I have mother-in-law trouble! My husband and I have been married for 13 years. We have three lovely children. After she visits us (which is often) I find clippings from newspapers and magazines on how to raise children and how to work out marriage problems. I find these clippings in my drawers and on top of the refrigerator. She doesn't hand them to me, she just puts them around my house. I found one yesterday that just burned me up. I was going to mail it back to her, but thought I would ask for your advice first.

DEAR ABBY: Say nothing and ignore the clippings. When she finds that she is getting no reaction whatever from you, she'll give up.

DEAR ABBY: I am 45 and have been going with this man for four months. He is 50. Is it right for a woman to tell a man friend what she wants for gifts or should they be of his own choosing? He suggested I name several things I would like and he would surprise me with one.

PROPER LADY

DEAR PROPER: Suggest a "few things" to be helpful—but

Opening lead—A 7.

Ely in with a club and Ely took his four club tricks. Ely's next play was the seven of spades and the three no-trump contract was doomed to defeat.

Ely had actually constructed Hal's whole hand and worked out the only defense to beat him. One club discard would have been fatal and at the end Ely had to lead his low spade, not the queen or the jack, else Hal would have made three spade tricks.

Artificial Bids Reverse Hands

When artificial bids are used it occasionally happens that a player will play a slam in his partner's suit. Sometimes these results are due to pure whimsy; on other occasions due to deliberate decision by the player with the solid suit.

When South opened the bidding with one club Cliff Bishop of Detroit decided that he wanted to be in a heart slam with any two aces holding of his partner. He also decided that he wanted his partner to be the declarer just in case of trouble in the diamond suit.

With this in mind Cliff responded four no-trump to his partner's opening club bid. Sure enough, South bid five hearts to be sure they are in the price range that suits his purse.

CHOOSSES JAIL SENTENCE—Marie Torre, radio and television critic of the New York Herald Tribune, arrives at federal court in New York for the hearing at which she chose to serve ten days in jail rather than divulge the source of a news item in her column concerning singer Judy Garland. The item, in which Miss Torre quoted a Columbia Broadcasting System executive as saying Miss Garland "is known for a highly developed inferiority complex," resulted in a libel suit against CBS by Miss Garland. Miss Torre's case was a test of a new law's right not to divulge a news source. (AP Photofax)

U. S. Still Spends More Than Budget Indicates

By FRANK CORMIER
WASHINGTON (AP)—Spending has a way of happening, whether you like it or not. Ask Uncle Sam. His budget is deeper in the red than ever before. In peacetime. Yet even as he plans to economize, experts tell him: he's spending more than his budget indicates.

For the third time since last summer, government economists have increased their estimates of future federal outlays for goods and services.

These are the estimates that give an advance clue to the government's contribution to national output. The fact that they have again been raised indicates federal spending will continue to add zip to the business recovery for at least the next six months.

Beyond next July the outlook is clouded because it will be several weeks before President Eisenhower sends Congress his new budget for the 1960 fiscal year that begins July 1. A lot depends too on what Congress does to that budget.

The odds are, however, that federal spending will remain a significant prop under the economy throughout 1959.

In the current fiscal year, the government is spending roughly 80 billion dollars. This compares with about 72 billions in the last bookkeeping year.

About two-thirds of this spending is for goods and services—missiles, trucks, office machines, buildings, pay for federal employees, etc. Money spent in this fashion moves directly into the economy.

Six months ago, government economists estimated that federal purchases of goods and services would reach an annual rate of 55 billion dollars by next June.

Now they say it probably will be closer to 56½ billions by June. Even if Congress and the administration hold the line on spending in fiscal 1960, a mere continuation of the projected April-June level would produce an average of 56½ billion dollars for calendar 1959.

That would mean an increase of about 3½ billion dollars over the 1958 average—enough to be a significant plus factor in the 1959 economy.

As in 1958, however, the administration and Congress may discover that spending tends to happen faster than expected.

With a $12,200,000,000 deficit forecast for the current fiscal year, the new Congress will hear plenty of talk about economy in government.

As in 1958, however, the administration and Congress may discover that spending tends to happen faster than expected.

Rec Club Plans Dance Thursday

The Central YMCA Rec Club will hold a dance tomorrow from 8:30 to 11:30 p. m. at the Y.

Charles Trimble's Kings of Swing orchestra will provide the music for dancing and all Rec Club members will be admitted free of charge. There will be a small admission charge for all other persons.

The dance will be in addition to the regular weekly dance held each Friday from 8:30 to 11:30 p. m. club officials stated. Friday's dance also will feature the Charles Trimble orchestra.

Parents of members of the club will be chaperons to both dances.

Women's Editor Lists Easy-To-Keep Resolutions

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)—Who said New Year's resolutions are made for breaking? I've just gone through the list of 10 made on this day last year and scored 99 and 44-100 per cent maintenance.

The secret? Make easy-to-keep resolutions, which play to the weakness of human nature; don't aim for self-improvement.

A noted psychologist, Dr. James F. Bender, says we fail to keep the do-good resolutions because "we are imperfect manifestations of God's creation." We go right on making them because "of our sense of guilt, our eagerness to exploit and improve," he added. But I've found keeping the other resolves is a breeze. Last year, for instance, I resolved to quit giving seats to old ladies on buses and subways; to gossip at every opportunity; never be on time for anything except trains and planes; not worry about the waistline; and go ahead and run up charge accounts.

Draws Up New List
Having scored such notable success in '58, I've forced a new list for 1959. Join me, if you'd like a resolution kept New Year.

Resolved:
—Not to have the exact fare when I board a bus;

—To back seat drive anytime I so desire;

—To buy freely and take back or exchange just as freely, so long as the stores will let me get by with same;

—To go ahead and shove in crowds, resorting to the convincing qualities of pointed toes and needle heels anytime necessary;

—To nag, nag, nag;

—To swat my nieces and nephews anytime they cross me; that is, if their parents are out of the room;

—To ignore friends and relatives' birthdays; no gifts or cards.

In '59, for who wants to be reminded of the passing years any way?

Ask For Raise

—Not to worry if I haven't read the newest books, seen the latest movies and plays. Just go ahead and be a conversational bore;

—Not to laugh at other people's jokes even if they're funny, unless they start laughing at mine even if not funny;

—To be cantankerous if I wish, although I realize that Webster shows the adjective used to describe an old maid.

—To go ahead and be disorganized, as charged;

—To change my mind at will; men say this is a woman's privilege.

leg and why fight 'em; —To ask the boss for a raise; —To ask the boss for a raise; —To ask the boss for a raise.

A Happy New Year to everyone.
